Contents

List of contributors vii
Preface x

Introduction: towards a legal framework for Europe’s integrated administration 1
Herwig C.H. Hofmann and Alexander H. Türk

PART I MODELS

1. The administrative implementation of European Union law: a taxonomy and its implications 9
   Edoardo Chiti
2. Shared administration, disbursement of community funds and the regulatory state 34
   Paul Craig

PART II PROCEDURES AND STRUCTURES

3. ‘Glass half empty or glass half-full?': accountability issues in comitology and the role of the European Parliament after the 2006 reform of comitology 65
   Christine Neuhold
4. Comitology: the ongoing reform 89
   Manuel Szapiro
5. Agencies: the ‘dark hour’ of the executive? 116
   Michelle Everson
6. Composite decision making procedures in EU administrative law 136
   Herwig C.H. Hofmann
7. The emergence of transatlantic regulation 168
   George A. Bermann
PART III SUPERVISION AND ACCOUNTABILITY

8. Administrative supervision of administrative action in the European Union
   Gerard C. Rowe
   179

9. Judicial review of integrated administration in the EU
   Alexander H. Türk
   218

10. Participation and participation rights in EU law and governance
    Joana Mendes
    257

11. The effects of the principles of transparency and accountability on public procurement regulation
    Christopher H. Bovis
    288

12. Good administration as procedural right and/or general principle?
    Hanns Peter Nehl
    322

PART IV CONCLUSIONS

13. Legal challenges in EU administrative law by the move to an integrated administration
    Herwig C.H. Hofmann and Alexander H. Türk
    355

Index

381