Rethinking the Judicial Settlement of Reconstruction

PAMELA BRANDWEIN
University of Michigan
Contents

Acknowledgments  ix

1 Abandoned Blacks?  1
2 The Emergence of the Concept of State Neglect, 1867–1873  28
3 The Civil/Social Distinction: An Intramural Republican Dispute  60
4 The Birth of State Action Doctrine, 1874–1876  87
5 A Surviving Sectional Context, 1876–1891  129
6 The Civil Rights Cases and the Language of State Neglect  161
7 Definitive Judicial Abandonment, 1896–1906  184
8 Twentieth-Century Receptions  206
9 Conclusion  240

Bibliography  245

Index  261