Activist Scholarship:
Possibilities and Constraints of Participatory Action Research
Activist Scholarship: Possibilities and Constraints of Participatory Action Research

Introduction: Activist Scholarship—Possibilities and Constraints of Participatory Action Research
Shabnam Koirala-Azad and Emma Fuentes

The Cultural Organizing of Formal Praxis-Based Pedagogies: A Socio-Historical Approach to Participatory Action Research
Julio Cammarota

Critical Dilemmas in PAR: Toward a New Theory of Engaged Research for Social Change
Kysa Nygreen

Cultural Exclusion and Critique in the Era of Good Intentions: Using Participatory Research to Transform Parent Roles in Urban School Reform
Andrea Dyrness

"In Between Oprah and Cristina": Urban Latina Youth Producing a Countertext with Participatory Action Research
Patricia Sánchez

Learning Power and Building Community: Parent-Initiated Participatory Action Research as a Tool for Organizing Community
Emma Fuentes

Exploring the Intersection of Philanthropy, Research, and Scholarship in a Third World Context
Shabnam Koirala-Azad

Activist Scholarship: A Review of Three Recent Works
Joshua A. Mitchell