Private Law in Eastern Europe

 Autonomous Developments or Legal Transplants?

Edited by
Christa Jessel-Holst,
Rainer Kulms and
Alexander Trunk

Mohr Siebeck
Contents

Abbreviations........................................................................................................................................XI

Jürgen Basedow
Welcome Address...................................................................................................................................1

A. Perspectives of Civil Law in Eastern Europe – Policy Issues.................5

Rainer Kulms
Optimistic Normativism after Two Decades of Legal Transplants and Autonomous Developments ..........................................................................................7

Michel Nussbaumer and Frederique Dahan
Promoting Legal Reform in Eastern Europe: the EBRD Approach...........15

Thomas Meyer
Social Market Economy Values in Legal Reform Projects
in South East Europe (SEE).................................................................................................41

B. Civil Law – General Aspects.................................................................63

Alexander Komarov
Development of Private Law on Contracts in the Russian Federation ......65

Volodymyr Kossak
General Principles of Private Law in Ukraine.................................................87

Jelena Perović
Contract Law in Serbia .........................................................................................93

Camelia Toader
Contract Law in Romania ...............................................................................109
Contents

Verica Trstenjak
Private Law Developments in Slovenia – a European Perspective........ 123

Christian Takoff
Private Law in Bulgaria................................................................. 149

C. Property Law Aspects – South-Eastern Europe...................... 169

Tatjana Josipović
Property Law Reform in Croatia Between Legal Transplants and Autonomous Development.................................................. 171

Meliha Povlakić
Property Law in Bosnia and Herzegovina............................... 205

Dušan Nikolić
Property Law in Serbia: Both Autonomous Legal Development and Legal Transplant .............................................................. 237

D. Company Law in Eastern Europe........................................ 269

Mirko Vasiljević
The Serbian Law on Commercial Companies........................... 271

Alexandra Makovskaya
Russian Company and Capital Market Law .............................. 295

Oleg Zaitsev
2009: Russian Corporate Legislation Reform Continues and Has to Be Continued ........................................................... 315

Ionuţ Răduleşcu
Recent Company Law Developments in the European Union........ 331

Tania Bouzeva
Company Law in Bulgaria........................................................... 351

Radu N. Catană
Romanian Company Law: Recent Evolution Between
Autonomous Development and Legal Transplants...................... 373
András Kisfaludi
Company Law in Hungary.............................................................417

Krzysztof Oplustil and Arkadiusz Radwan
Company Law in Poland: Between Autonomous Development and Legal Transplants........................................................................445

Contributors ..........................................................................................495

Multilateral Agreements and European Union Law .........................497