Almudena de la Mata Muñoz

Typical Personal Security Rights in the EU

Comparative Law and Economics in Italy, Spain and other EU Countries in the Light of EU Law, Basel II and the Financial Crisis

Mohr Siebeck
Table of Contents

Preface .............................................................................................................. VII
Overview .......................................................................................................... IX
Table of Contents ........................................................................................... XII
Abbreviations ................................................................................................. XXXIII

Introduction ...................................................................................................... 1

Chapter 1: The system of security rights in Italy and Spain ..................... 5

A. Delimitation of the concept of security right ........................................ 5
   I. The concept of security right in a broad sense .................................... 5
   II. The concept of security right in Private Law. The need for a flexible legal framework .................................................................... 5
   III. The concept of security and the debtor's general liability ............... 7

B. Classification of security rights ................................................................. 8
   I. Dichotomy between personal and real security rights ....................... 8
      1. In general ......................................................................................... 8
      2. Personal security rights ................................................................. 8
         a) Concept of personal security right ............................................. 8
         b) Personal security rights granted by private or by professional sureties .................................................................. 9
         c) State guarantees: and their particular role in the context of 2008/2009 financial crisis .................................................... 10
         d) Different kinds of personal security rights (typical and atypical) .................................................................................... 11
      3. Real security rights ......................................................................... 12
      4. Personal vs. Real security rights ................................................... 13

C. The practical functions of security rights: Law, economics and social implications ...................................................................................... 14
I. Security protects the creditor against debtor’s default .................. 15
   1. Assessing the need or security ........................................ 15
   2. Assessing the value of security upon enforcement: recovery rate 17
   3. How personal and real security rights affect the principle of par conditio creditorum ........................................ 19

II. Security enhances the grant of credit ...................................... 19

III. Security enables the grant of credit at lower costs ..................... 20

IV. Security contributes to economic development .......................... 22
   1. How security impacts economic development ....................... 22
   2. The EU policy action in view of enhancing credit and its impact on security interest ........................................ 23

V. The role of security rights in terms of financial stability .............. 23

VI. The role of security rights in the 2008 financial crisis ................ 23

Chapter 2: The contract of guarantee in the Spanish and Italian legal systems (fideiussione/fianza) .......................................... 25

Introduction .................................................................................. 25
A. Concept and legal nature of the guarantee contract ...................... 25
   I. Notion of guarantee. The Roman law imprinting ..................... 25
   II. Legal notion of guarantee .................................................. 27
      1. In general ........................................................................ 27
         a) The guarantee is a contract .......................................... 28
         b) The guarantee is a form of security right ..................... 28
         c) The guarantee is a personal security right .................. 29
      2. The guarantee obligation ................................................ 29
   III. Structure of the contract of guarantee .................................. 30
      1. The parties to the contract of guarantee ............................. 30
      2. The contract of guarantee as a source of obligations.
         Unilateral or bilateral obligations .................................... 33
         a) In general .................................................................. 33
         b) Natural gratuitousness of the typical guarantee .......... 33
         c) Onerous character of professional guarantees .......... 34
         d) Concept of remuneration for a guarantee .................. 34
            a) Any kind of compensation .................................... 34
            b) Remuneration to the guarantor or to a third party .... 35
Table of Contents

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Section</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>cc) Performed by the creditor</td>
<td>35</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>e) Effects of the gratuitous or onerous character of the guarantee</td>
<td>35</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>IV. Constitutive characteristics of the guarantee contract</td>
<td>36</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(ancillarity and subsidiarity)</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1. In general</td>
<td>36</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2. Ancillary character of the guarantee obligation: the principle</td>
<td>36</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>of co-extensiveness</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>a) Definition and legal effect of the principle of co-extensiveness</td>
<td>36</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>b) Principle of co-existensiveness as a typical characteristic of the contract of guarantee</td>
<td>38</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>c) Limitation of the principle of co-extensiveness</td>
<td>39</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>aa) Legal exceptions to the principle of co-extensiveness</td>
<td>39</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>bb) Derogation by the parties of provisions regarding the principle of</td>
<td>40</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>co-extensiveness: the guarantees “on first demand”</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3. The secondary nature of the guarantee</td>
<td>41</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>V. Similarities between the guarantee and other related legal</td>
<td>42</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>instruments</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1. Guarantee and assumption of debt</td>
<td>42</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2. Guarantee and assumption of performance</td>
<td>43</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>a) In general</td>
<td>43</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>b) Assumption of performance (delegazione di pagamento/</td>
<td>43</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>asunción de cumplimiento)</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>c) Expromission (espromissione/expromisión)</td>
<td>44</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3. Guarantee and adherence to the debt (acollo/adhesión a la deuda)</td>
<td>44</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4. Guarantee and mandate to provide credit (mandato di credito/</td>
<td>46</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>mandato de credito)</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5. Guarantee and guarantee for a bill of exchange (avallo/aval)</td>
<td>46</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>B. Creation of the guarantee</td>
<td>47</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1. The sources of the contract of guarantee</td>
<td>47</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>a) Consensual guarantee</td>
<td>48</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>b) Statutory guarantee</td>
<td>48</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>c) Judicial guarantee</td>
<td>49</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2. Legal regulation on consensual, statutory and judicial guarantees</td>
<td>50</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
a) Requirements regarding the guarantor .......................................................... 50
b) Alternatives to the legal or judicial duty to provide a guarantor ...................... 50
c) Substitution of the insolvent guarantor .......................................................... 51
d) Jurisdiction applicable to the guarantor ......................................................... 51
e) Specific consequences for the judicial guarantor. Exclusion of the benefit of discussion .......................................................... 52

II. Creation of the guarantee obligation .............................................................. 52
  1. Conclusion of the contract of guarantee ....................................................... 52
     a) Offer and acceptance ............................................................................... 52
        aa) The guarantor’s offer ........................................................................ 52
            (i) Form of the offer ........................................................................ 53
                (α) Express but not necessarily written form ............................... 53
                (β) The meaning of the terms: ‘express’ and ‘tacit’ ..................... 54
                (γ) Compulsory written form for commercial guarantees in Spain .... 55
            (ii) Proof of the constitution of the guarantee .................................... 55
        bb) The creditor’s offer ........................................................................... 56
        cc) Acceptance ....................................................................................... 57
            (i) No need for acceptance of the guarantee by the debtor ............... 57
            (ii) Express acceptance of the guarantee by the creditor .................. 57
                (α) Is the creditor’s express acceptance a constitutive requirement? 57
                (β) Legal effects of the creditor’s acceptance of the guarantee ........... 58
  2. Object of the guarantee ................................................................................. 59
     a) In general ............................................................................................. 59
     b) Effects of the principle of co-extensiveness on the object of the guarantee .... 60
        aa) The secured obligation must be valid ................................................. 60
        bb) The extent of the secured obligation limits the extent of the guarantee .. 61

C. Extent of the guarantee obligation ................................................................. 61
  I. In general .................................................................................................. 61
  II. The extent of a non-limited guarantee ......................................................... 62
     1. Determination of the extent of non-limited guarantees ............................. 62
        a) The secured obligation ....................................................................... 62
b) Extensions of the secured obligation after constitution of the guarantee ........................................... 62

c) The specific case of extension of time (prórroga) ......................... 63

d) Accessories ................................................................. 64
   aa) In general ............................................................. 64
   bb) Definition of the term “accessories” .................................. 65
      (i) In general ................................................................ 65
      (ii) Accessories of the secured debt ..................................... 65

e) Costs of legal proceedings .................................................. 66

2. Guarantee exceeding the secured obligation or in duriorem causam. Reduction of the exceeding extent ...................... 66

3. Convenience of establishing a maximum amount as legal constitutive requirement ..................................................... 67
   a) In general .................................................................... 67
   b) Special case: liability limitation for non-professional guarantors ................................................................. 67
   c) Special case: liability limitation for future guarantees ........... 68

III. The extent of a limited guarantee ........................................... 68
   1. Limitation of the guarantee in terms of amount ....................... 68
   2. Limitation of the guarantee in terms of conditions ................... 68
   3. Limitation of the guarantee in terms of extension of time .......... 68

IV. The guarantee for future obligations ........................................ 69
   1. Notion of guarantee for future obligation ............................... 69
   2. Guarantee for future obligations and principle of co-extensiveness ............................................................ 69
   3. The protection of the guarantor for future debts ...................... 70
      a) The maximum amount ............................................... 70
      b) Guarantor’s discharge (art. 1956 Italian CC) ..................... 71

V. Guarantee for conditional obligations ........................................ 72
   1. In general ..................................................................... 72
   2. The nature of a guarantee for conditional obligations ............. 72

VI. The universal guarantee (fideiussione omnibus/ fianza omnibus) .................................................................. 72
   1. The concept of universal guarantee ..................................... 72
   2. Practical applications ...................................................... 73
      a) In general ............................................................... 73
      b) Advantages for the parties ............................................. 73
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Section</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>c) Clauses used in banking practice in order to create a</td>
<td>73</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>universal guarantee</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3. Validity of the universal guarantee</td>
<td>75</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>a) In general</td>
<td>75</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>b) The problem of a determinable object</td>
<td>75</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>c) The principle of good faith in specifying the guarantee’s object</td>
<td>78</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>d) A universal guarantee included in general terms and</td>
<td>78</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>conditions and the matter of surprising clauses</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4. Extent of the universal guarantee</td>
<td>79</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>a) In general</td>
<td>79</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>b) Universal guarantees with time limit or without time limit</td>
<td>79</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>aa) Guarantees with time limit</td>
<td>79</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>bb) Guarantee without time limit</td>
<td>80</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5. Protection of the universal guarantor</td>
<td>80</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>a) Need for protection</td>
<td>80</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>b) Limitation of the guarantor’s liability</td>
<td>80</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>c) Is the agreement of a maximum amount a sufficient</td>
<td>82</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>protection for the universal guarantor?</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>d) Duty to inform the guarantor of the debtor’s financial</td>
<td>82</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>difficulties and to request authorisation in order to grant</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>further credit</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>e) Italian protective regulation. An example for Spain?</td>
<td>83</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>VII. Guarantee for an invalid obligation</td>
<td>84</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1. The guarantee for a void obligation</td>
<td>84</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>a) In general</td>
<td>84</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>b) The guarantee explicitly granted for the case of nullity of the</td>
<td>85</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>secured obligation</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>c) The guarantor’s awareness of the nullity of the secured obligation</td>
<td>86</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2. Nullity of the secured obligation by reason of simulation</td>
<td>86</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3. Nullity caused by the guarantor</td>
<td>86</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4. Nullity and avoidability</td>
<td>87</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5. Validity of the waiver by the guarantor to set up the defence</td>
<td>87</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>of nullity of the secured obligation. The case of guarantees</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>on first demand</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>VIII. Limitation of the extent by the agreement of certain conditions</td>
<td>88</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>D. Relationship between guarantor and creditor</td>
<td>89</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>I. In general</td>
<td>89</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
II. Creditor’s rights and duties before the debt has become due and payable ................................................................. 89
  1. Creditor’s right to assign the credit .............................................................. 89
  2. Creditor’s duties before the debt has become due and payable ...................... 90
     a) In general ........................................................................................................ 90
     b) Duty to inform about the debtor’s delay in secondary guarantees ................. 90
     c) Duty to inform about the debtor’s financial difficulties .............................. 91
     d) Duty to notify the assignment .................................................................. 92

III. Rights of the guarantor vis-à-vis the creditor ................................................ 92
  1. The benefit of discussion .............................................................................. 92
     a) General notion ............................................................................................... 92
     b) Benefit of discussion, ex lege or agreed by the parties .............................. 93
     c) The nature of the benefit of discussion ....................................................... 94
     d) The benefit of discussion and the co-guarantee ......................................... 95
     e) The benefit of discussion for sub-guarantors ............................................. 96
     f) Requirements for the application of the benefit of discussion.................. 96
        aa) The guarantor must raise the benefit of discussion ............................... 96
        bb) The guarantor must point out the goods of the debtor subject to discussion .................................................................................................................. 97
           (i) Excessive difficulty to enforce. Explicit exclusion from the discussion of certain assets ................................................................. 97
           (ii) Need to point out sufficient assets to satisfy the creditor .................. 98
        cc) The guarantor must anticipate the costs of the discussion .................... 99
     g) Duty of the creditor to diligently discuss the debtor’s assets .................... 99
     h) Exceptions of the benefit of discussion ...................................................... 100
        aa) Benefit of discussion excluded by the parties ........................................ 100
        bb) Cases of legal exclusion of the benefit of discussion ............................ 100
           (i) Debtor’s bankruptcy ............................................................................ 101
              (a) Declaration of bankruptcy ............................................................... 101
              (B) Factual bankruptcy ......................................................................... 101
           (ii) Impossibility to sue in Spain ............................................................... 102
        cc) Final remark ........................................................................................... 102
  2. Benefit of division. Special benefit for co-guarantors ..................................... 103
  3. The right to set up defences (eccezioni/excepciones) ...................................... 103
a) The right of the guarantor to set up the defences deriving from the contract of guarantee ........................................ 103
b) The right to set up the debtor’s defences ................................................................. 104
aa) In general .................................................................................................................. 104
bb) Exception: the defense by reason of minority or disability of the debtor .................. 104
c) The guarantee of a co-debt ......................................................................................... 106
d) Waiver of the right to set up defenses ...................................................................... 106
   (i) Validity of the waiver and consequences ............................................................. 106
   (ii) Construction of the waiver .................................................................................. 108

4. Right to make agreements with the creditor ............................................................... 108
5. Right to remain unaffected by the agreements taken between creditor and debtor .......... 108

E. Relationship between the guarantor and the debtor .................................................... 109

I. Introduction .................................................................................................................. 109

II. Duties of the guarantor before performance .............................................................. 110
   1. Guarantor’s duty to notify the creditor’s request or his own intention to perform in order to prevent unjustified enrichment . 110
   2. Duty of the guarantor to set up the debtor’s defences ........................................... 110

III. Rights of the guarantor before performance ............................................................. 111
   1. Guarantor’s right to be informed about payment performed by the debtor ............... 111

   2. Guarantor’s right to request for release ................................................................ 111
      a) In general .............................................................................................................. 111
      b) Guarantor’s right to claim for release ................................................................. 112
      c) Conditions for release ....................................................................................... 113
         aa) General condition ........................................................................................... 113
         bb) Specific conditions: cases for relief ............................................................... 114
            (i) In general .................................................................................................. 114
            (ii) Detailed consideration of the cases for release ....................................... 114
                  (α) The guarantor has been sued for payment ........................................... 114
                  (β) The debtor is bankrupt or insolvent ....................................................... 115
                      (αα) Meaning of “insolvency” ................................................................. 115
                      (ββ) Insolvency of the debtor ................................................................. 116
                  (γ) The debtor is bound to release the guarantor from his guarantee within a given term and the term has expired ................................................. 117
(δ) The debt has become due because the term within which it should have been paid has expired................................. 117
(ε) At the end of five years in Italy and ten years in Spain, when the principal obligation has no fixed term ........................................... 117
d) Debtor's defences against the guarantor's claim for release ......................................................... 118
e) Consequence of no release: damages .................................. 118

IV. Rights of the guarantor after performance ................................................................. 118

1. In general ................................................................. 118
   a) Duality of claims: reimbursement and subrogation ........ 118
   b) Differences between subrogation and reimbursement .... 119
      aa) The nature of the claims .................................... 119
      bb) Extent of the claims ........................................ 119
      cc) Prescription of the claims ................................. 120
   c) Cumulative or alternative claims .............................. 120

2. Subrogation ............................................................. 121
   a) In general .......................................................... 121
   b) Payment to the creditor as requirement for subrogation ... 121
   c) Content of the right of subrogation ............................ 122
      aa) In general ...................................................... 122
      bb) Subrogation into the creditor's security rights ........ 122
      cc) Items excluded from subrogation ......................... 123
   d) Partial subrogation upon partial performance .............. 123
   e) Effectiveness of the subrogation .............................. 124
   f) Protection by the law of the right of subrogation .......... 125
   g) Waiver by the guarantor to his right of subrogation .... 125

3. The claim for reimbursement ........................................ 125
   a) Source of the claim: the relationship between debtor and guarantor ................................................. 125
   b) Payment to the creditor as requirement for reimbursement ... 126
   c) The content of the claim for reimbursement ............... 126
      aa) The total amount of the debt ............................. 126
      bb) Costs after notifying the debtor of the demand for payment against him ........................................ 127
      cc) Damages, when appropriate ............................... 127
   d) Defences of the debtor against the claim for reimbursement .................................................... 128
      aa) Debtor's defenses against the creditor may be set up against the guarantor .................................. 128
Table of Contents

(i) In general ................................................................. 128
(ii) Requirements .......................................................... 128
   (a) Guarantor's duty to inform the debtor about his intention to perform .......... 128
   (β) Defences at the moment of guarantor's performance ............................. 129
(iii) Exceptions .............................................................. 129
   (a) Lack of defences .................................................... 129
   (β) Defences already set up ........................................... 130
   (bb) Debtor's defences against the guarantor for anticipated payments ............ 130
   (cc) Defence for a double payment .................................... 130
      (i) The guarantor performs without notifying the debtor .......................... 130
      (ii) The debtor performs without notifying the guarantor ......................... 130
F. Extinction of the guarantee contract ...................................... 131
   I. Causes of extinction of the guarantee .......................................... 131
      II. The extinction of the underlying obligation as the reason for the extinction of the guarantee: the indirect causes of extinction .......... 133
         1. Extinction of the guarantee upon performance of the underlying obligation .......................................................... 133
            a) Payment to the creditor ............................................. 133
               aa) Payment by the debtor ........................................... 133
               bb) Payment by a third party ....................................... 133
            cc) Typical cases of performance by third parties .......................... 134
               (i) A joint and several co-debt ..................................... 134
               (ii) The third party performs for the account of the guarantor ............ 134
               (iii) Payment performed in good faith to the person in possession of the title ..................................................... 134
            dd) Void or undue payment ............................................. 135
            ee) Partial payments .................................................. 135
           ff) Imputation of the payment performed by the debtor ......................... 135
              (i) In general ....................................................... 135
              (ii) Imputation in the case of a debt partially secured with a guarantee ..................................................... 137
              (iii) Imputation of a partial payment in the case of a guarantee for a limited amount .................................................. 137
              (iv) Imputation in the case of a debt secured with different guarantees .............. 137
b) Alternative legal ways for performance (surrogati del pagamento/subrogados del pago) ........................................ 138
  aa) Tender and deposit (deposito/consignación) ......................... 138
  bb) Set-off (compensazione/compensación) ............................... 138
  cc) Assignments of assets (prestazione in luogo dell'adempimento/ dación en pago) ......................................... 139

2. Extinction of the guarantee by release of the debtor (condonazione/condonación) ........................................... 139
   a) In general .................................................................... 139
   b) Acceptance to be released ............................................ 140
   c) Partial release ................................................................ 140
   d) Pactum de non petendo .................................................. 140

3. Extinction of the guarantee by novation of the secured debt
   (novazione/novación) ....................................................... 141

4. Extinction of the guarantee by confusion between the creditor and the debtor ..................................................... 141

5. Extinction of the guarantee by prescription ................................ 142
   a) In general .................................................................... 142
   b) Interruption of prescription of the secured debt .................. 142

III. The extinction of the guarantee obligation: the direct causes of extinction .......................................................................... 143

1. Payment by the guarantor .................................................... 143
   a) In general .................................................................... 143
   b) Imputation of the payment .............................................. 143

2. Alternative legal ways for the guarantor to perform (subrogados del pago/surrogati) ......................................... 143
   a) Tender and deposit (deposito/consignación) and assignment of assets (prestazione in luogo dell’adempimento/dación en pago) ........................................ 144
   b) Set-off (compensazione/compensación) ............................ 144
      aa) Set-off by the guarantor of his own claims ................. 144
      bb) Moment in which a set-off may be raised ................. 145
   c) Release of the guarantor (condonazione/condonación) ...... 145
      aa) In general ............................................................... 145
      bb) Effects of the release in case of co-guarantee .......... 145
         (i) Controversy regarding art. 1850 Spanish CC ...... 147

3. Novation .......................................................................... 147

4. Confusion ......................................................................... 148
   a) Confusion between the guarantor and the debtor .......... 148
Table of Contents

b) Confusion between debtor and one of the joint and several co-guarantors .......................................................... 150

c) Confusion between the creditor and the guarantor ............... 150

d) Confusion between the creditor and one of the guarantors in the case of a plurality of independent guarantees ......... 151

e) Confusion between the creditor and one of the co-guarantors ...................................................................... 151

   aa) Co-guarantors that are separately liable (mancomunidad) ............................................................... 151

   bb) Co-guarantors that are joint and severally liable (solidarietà/ solidaridad) .................................................. 151

   cc) Confusion between co-guarantors ................................. 153

   dd) Exception to the confusion ............................................. 153

5. Prescription ........................................................................... 153

IV. Special causes of extinction for the guarantee .................. 154

1. Release of the guarantor by reason of the impossibility to subrogate caused by the creditor ........................................... 154

   a) In general .......................................................................... 154

   b) Requirements for release: a harmful act of behaviour on the part of the creditor ...................................................... 155

      aa) In general ..................................................................... 155

      bb) The act of the creditor: active and passive ................. 156

      cc) Damaging effect: loss of the right to subrogate .......... 157

   c) Behaviour of the guarantor ............................................. 158

   d) Waiver by the guarantor of his right to be discharged ..... 159

2. Extinction of the guarantee for future debts ......................... 160

   a) In general .......................................................................... 160

   b) Requirements for the application of art. 1956 Italian CC .. 161

      i) The creditor extends credit ............................................ 161

      ii) The financial situation of the debtor has become such as to make it difficult for the debt to be performed ................................................................. 161

      iii) The creditor is aware of the financial deterioration of the debtor's position ............................................. 162

   c) Authorisation by the guarantor to the creditor to grant credit despite the financial difficulties of the debtor ....... 162

   d) Waive by the guarantor of the right granted in art. 1956
      Italian CC .................................................................. 163

   e) The principle of good faith in the guarantee for future obligations under Spanish Law ......................................... 164
3. Extinction of the guarantee by reason of time. Discharge of the guarantor after maturity of the underlying obligation (scadenza dell'obbligazione garantita ed inerzia del creditore) ................................................................. 165
   a) In general ....................................................................................................................... 165
   b) The extinction of a guarantee agreed without time limit ............................................ 166
      aa) In general ................................................................................................................ 166
      bb) Global guarantees and guarantees for future debts without time limit .................. 167
   c) Extinction of the guarantee limited to the moment of maturity of the underlying obligation .............................................................................................................. 169
   d) Extinction of the guarantee agreed with a specific time limit ...................................... 169
   e) The terms established in art. 1957 Italian CC ......................................................... 171
   f) Requirements to avoid the extinction of the guarantee within the given term ............ 172
      aa) In general ................................................................................................................ 172
      bb) An action against the debtor ................................................................................... 172
      cc) Diligent pursuit by the creditor prevents the extinction ........................................ 173
   g) Art. 1957 Italian CC: a non mandatory rule .............................................................. 174
      aa) Validity of the waiver of art. 1957 Italian CC ....................................................... 174
      bb) Form of the waiver: express or tacit ........................................................................ 175
4. Extension of time (prorroga) ......................................................................................... 175
   a) Extension of time in the Spanish regulation ............................................................... 175
      aa) In general ................................................................................................................ 175
      bb) Explicit extension of time and tolerance for the non-performance by the debtor ...... 177
      cc) Practical application ............................................................................................... 178
      dd) Extension of time established by law (proroga/prorroga) ........................................ 178
      ee) The consent of the guarantor to the extension of time for the secured debt .......... 179
      ff) Good faith and consent ......................................................................................... 180
   b) Extension of time in other regulations ....................................................................... 180
G. Spanish foral laws and the guarantee contract ............................................................. 182
   I. The plurality of co-existent civil law regimes in the Spanish territory ................................ 182
   II. The contract of guarantee in the foral laws ................................................................. 183
      1. The regulation on the guarantee in the region of Navarra ........................................ 183
Chapter 3: Other typical personal security rights under Italian and Spanish law

A. The mandate to provide credit for a third party
   I. The basic concept of mandate to provide credit
   II. Historical background: Roman Law
   III. Evolution of the mandate to provide credit in Europe. Current situation
   IV. Legal provisions applicable to the m.p.c.
      1. Legal provisions on the m.p.c.
      2. The rules on the mandate applicable to the m.p.c
      3. Regulation on the contract of guarantee
   V. Parties to the contract
      1. The mandatory
      2. The mandator
   VI. Conclusion of the contract
      1. Mandate
      2. Acceptance
   VII. The object of the contract
   VIII. Relationships between the parties to the contract
      1. In general
      2. Rights of the mandator vis-à-vis the mandatory
         a) Right to the performance of the mandatory on the agreed terms
         b) Right to be released from his guarantee obligation
         c) Right to be informed: “render of account”
         d) Right to be subrogated in the rights of the mandatory
         e) Right of the mandator to revoke the mandate
      3. Rights of the mandatory vis-à-vis the mandator
         a) Right to performance of the mandator upon default of the beneficiary
         b) Right to perceive the remuneration stipulated
c) Right to recover costs which are separate from the provision of funds ......................................................... 198
d) Right to be indemnified for the damages suffered due to the performance of the mandate .......................... 198
e) Right to be discharged of the duty to grant credit ................................................................. 198
f) Right to waive the contract ................................................................. 199

IX. Extinction of the m.p.c. ........................................................................................................... 199
   1. Revocation by the mandator .............................................................................................. 199
   2. Waiver by the mandatory ............................................................................................. 200
   3. Death ............................................................................................................................... 201
      a) Death before the performance of the mandate .......................................................... 201
      b) Death after the performance of the mandate ............................................................. 201
   4. Supervening incapacity .................................................................................................. 202
   5. Insolvency ....................................................................................................................... 202
   6. Exception in case of enterprises ................................................................................... 202

X. Function of the m.p.c. ....................................................................................................... 203

XI. Similar security rights to the m.p.c. ............................................................................... 203
   1. The m.p.c. and the letter of comfort ............................................................................. 203
   2. The m.p.c. and the documentary credit ........................................................................ 204
   3. The m.p.c. and the letters of payment (Cartas orden de crédito) ................................. 205

XII. Legal nature of the m.p.c. ............................................................................................... 206
    1. The m.p.c. as a contract of guarantee ........................................................................ 206
    2. The m.p.c. as a contract of mandate ......................................................................... 207
    3. Autonomous legal nature of the m.p.c. ................................................................. 209

XIII. Convenience to regulate the m.p.c. in Spanish legislation ..................................... 209

B. Guarantee for a bill of exchange (l’avallo/ el aval cambiario) ..................................... 210
   I. The basic concept of guarantee for a bill of exchange .............................................. 210
   II. Terminological uncertainty in Spain ................................................................. 210
   III. Legal nature and regulation ............................................................................... 211

C. The contract of guarantee insurance .............................................................................. 213
   I. The basic concept of guarantee insurance .............................................................. 213
   II. Relations between the parties to the contract ....................................................... 213
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Section</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. Relationship between the debtor and the creditor</td>
<td>213</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2. Relationship between the debtor and the insurer</td>
<td>213</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3. Relationship between the insurer and the creditor</td>
<td>214</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>III. Economic function of the guarantee insurance</td>
<td>214</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>IV. Types of guarantee insurance contracts</td>
<td>214</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1. Guarantee insurance required by law</td>
<td>215</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>a) Insurance contract in favour of the public administration</td>
<td>215</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>b) Insurance contract to guarantee sums of money invested in the</td>
<td>215</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>construction of a private residence</td>
<td>215</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>c) Guarantee insurance against property damage caused by construction</td>
<td>217</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>deficiencies or defects</td>
<td>217</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2. Guarantee insurance by agreement of the parties</td>
<td>217</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>V. Legal nature of the guarantee insurance</td>
<td>217</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1. The insurance elements in the contract of guarantee insurance</td>
<td>218</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>a) Insurance company</td>
<td>218</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>b) Indemnifying character</td>
<td>218</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2. The guarantee elements in the contract of guarantee insurance</td>
<td>219</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>a) Guarantee insurance on first demand</td>
<td>220</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>b) Guarantee insurance as a dependent guarantee</td>
<td>220</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3. Conclusions and law applicable to the guarantee insurance</td>
<td>221</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>D. The contract of credit insurance (assicurazione di credito/seguro</td>
<td>222</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>de crédito)</td>
<td>222</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>I. The basic notion and legal nature of the credit insurance</td>
<td>222</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>II. Historical evolution and economic function in contemporary</td>
<td>222</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>commercial activity</td>
<td>222</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1. Historical background</td>
<td>222</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2. Economic function</td>
<td>222</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>a) Commercial use of credit insurance</td>
<td>222</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>b) Recent use of credit insurance in banking practice: Mortgage</td>
<td>223</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Insurance</td>
<td>223</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>III. Legal nature of the credit insurance</td>
<td>225</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>IV. Legislation applicable to credit insurance contracts</td>
<td>225</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Chapter 4: Plurality of security rights

A. Relationship among sureties in case of concurrency
   I. In general
   II. Constellations of plurality of security rights
      1. Plurality of personal security rights
         a) The co-guarantee (confideissione/co-fianza)
         b) Plurality of personal guarantees independent from each other
         c) Legal regulation of both cases
      2. Plurality of personal and real securities
   III. Relationship of the different sureties vis-à-vis the creditor
      1. Order of payment
      2. Extent of liability of each one of the security rights
         a) In the co-guarantee
            aa) Regulation
            bb) In the business practice
               (i) Express agreement of the parties
               (ii) Construction of unclear contractual terms
         b) In the case of plurality of security rights (personal and real)
      3. Defences
         a) In the co-guarantee
         b) In the case of plurality of security rights
   IV. Internal relationship among the different sureties
      1. Internal relationship among co-guarantors
         a) Right of recourse
         b) The case of insolvency of one of the co-guarantors
         c) The right of the co-guarantors to set up defences against other co-guarantors
      2. Internal relationship between a plurality of sureties that are independent from each other
         a) Plurality of guarantees, independent from each other
         b) Plurality of personal and real securities independent from each other
         c) Possible solutions to the unfairness of the lack of right of recourse among sureties
            aa) In general
Table of Contents

bb) Solution based on the principle of bona fides
   (i) Application in neighbouring countries
   (ii) Application of the “Bona Fides” solution in Spain. Difficulties
   (iii) Consequences of the application to this solution
cc) Solution for a special case. Concurrency of guarantee and other security rights

V. Concurrency of a contract of guarantee and an assumption of debt
   1. In general
   2. Assumption of debt for security purpose

VI. Concurrency of guarantee contracts and letters of comfort

Chapter 5: Personal security rights as Credit Risk Mitigators in the Basle II Accord and in the Capital Requirements Directive

Introduction

A. The New Basel II Accord and the Capital Requirements Directive
   I. A risk sensitive banking regulation for a changing environment
   II. The goal of the Basel II Accord and the three pillars methodology

B. Recognition of Credit Risk Mitigation Techniques: an achievement of the Basel II Accord
   I. Capital relief through the use of Credit Risk Mitigation Techniques (CRM)
   II. The concept of CRM, unfunded credit protection and guarantee
      1. The concept of CRM: broad and comprehensive
      2. The concept of unfunded credit protection
      3. The concept of guarantee under the CRD
   III. The regulation of CRMs in Basel II and the CRD
      1. In general
      2. Application of CRMs for capital relief: distinction between IRB and RSA banks
      3. Minimum requirements for CRMs to be recognised for capital relief
a) Requirements related to the CRM provider .......................... 257
b) Specific minimum requirements for “Guarantees” to qualify as a CRM under RSA approach................................. 258
c) Specific minimum requirements for “Guarantees” to qualify as a CRM under IRB approach................................. 260

4. Possibilities to develop new CRMs under Basel II: scope for innovation? ........................................................................... 261

Chapter 6: Security rights in the EU context: market implication and harmonisation of EU Private Law. .................. 263

Introduction ................................................................................................................. 263

A. Security rights in the current EU context. Law and Economics ........ 263
   I. EU policy action in view of enhancing credit and its impact on security rights .............................................................................. 263
   II. The impact of the financial crisis on EU law, credit and security rights .................................................................................. 264

B. EU private law and its impact on security rights .................................. 266
   I. How are security rights affected by EU private law ....................... 266
      1. EU Law: The role of Directives and the need to harmonise the acquis communautaire .......................................................... 266
         a) The EU acqui and the particular relevance of consumer protection for sureties ......................................................... 266
         b) The need for a more coherent acquis communautaire .... 269
   II. Further harmonisation of EU private law ........................................ 270
      1. Non-legislative harmonisation of European contract law. Harmonised protection for sureties through the horizontal effect of fundamental rights ........................................................................ 270
      2. Legislative harmonisation of EU private law .............................. 271
         a) Political action .............................................................................. 271
            aa) Improving the acquis communautaire: The Common Frame of Reference and the Green paper on the Review of the Consumer Acquis ............................................. 272
                (i) The Common Frame of Reference (CFR) .................................. 272
Table of Contents

(iii) Prospects on coming EU law: protecting sureties and consumers of financial products and its impact on market integration ........................................274
  bb Optional instrument: Opting-in a unified code? ..............274
b) The academic action ................................................... 275
  aa) An overview .......................................................... 275
  bb) The Draft Common Frame of Reference (DCFR) and its predecessors .............................................. 277
  cc) Academic attempt to harmonise the law of security rights: Study Group on a European Contract Law and its integration in the DCFR ........................................ 278

C. Should we attempt to harmonise EU Personal Security Rights? .......... 279

D. Final consideration: comparative law of security rights in view of current EU developments .................................................. 281

Table of Statutes: Italian and Spanish Law ........................................ 283
Rules on the Guarantee in Italian Civil Code (Bilingual) .................. 285
Rules on the Guarantee in Spanish Civil Code (Bilingual) ................. 292
Rules on the Guarantee in German Civil Code (Bilingual) ................. 300 Charts .................................................................................. 305
Bibliography ........................................................................ 313
Index .................................................................................. 327