Table of Contents

Abstract .................................................................................................................. x

Contributors ........................................................................................................ xi

Introduction .......................................................................................................... xviii  Farhad Malekian

Chapter One: Dimensions of the Best Interests of the Child
The Child as an Autonomous Subject of Justice .............................................. 2  Farhad Malekian
The Sovereignty of Children in Law ................................................................. 56  Kerstin Nordlöf
Who is a Child? The International Definition of a Child.............................. 69  Marta Prucnal
Children's Rights in the Norwegian Constitution ........................................... 87  Kirsten Sandberg
Some Reflections on a Dialogical Approach to the Recognition of Children in the Decision-Making Process ................................................................. 101  Titti Mattsson

Chapter Two: Gender Legal Dilemmas
Contradictions in the Theory of the Child's Competence.............................. 116  Julia Köhler-Olsen
What Do We Mean When We Speak about Children's Right to Development? ................................................................. 134  Noam Peleg
Table of Contents

Challenges and Dilemmas Regarding Non-Resident Fathers in Public Law ................................................................. 157
Jim Reid

The Indian Perspective of Gender Discrimination on Girl Children and Foeticide .................................................. 178
Navdeep Kour Sasan

Chapter Three: Legal Perception of Culture

The Sovereignty of Children's Rights within the Legislation of the Nordic Countries .................................................. 194
Kerstin Nordlöf

The Ottoman State and Religious Education for a Majority Population: A Search for the Best Interests of the Child .......................................................... 235
Fatih Öztürk

Legislation in Japan Relating to the Characteristics and Issues of the Prevention of Child Abuse .................................................. 258
Kiyoe Takata

Rules Governing Child Custody in Iranian Legislation .......................................................... 274
Hengameh Ghazanfari

Chapter Four: Economic Legal Problems

The Indebtedness of Children and Young Adults in Sweden .......................................................... 290
Annina H. Persson

The Scale of the Swedish Tax System Concerning Children .......................................................... 300
Eleonor Kristoffersson

‘Bringing up Baby’: Using Pre-parenting Agreements to Manage the Child-Parent Relationship through and after Partnership Breakdown .......................................................... 312
Angela Burns
Chapter Five: Legal Procedure

The Dimensions of a Fair Trial with Reference to Children.................. 332
Laura Ervo and Hannele Tolonen

The Nepalese Experience of the Judicial Enforcement of Children’s Rights........................................................................................................ 346
Raju Prasad Chapagai

Coercive Legislation: Children’s Invisibility in the Legal Process ........ 371
Hjördis Flodström Enquist

Empowering Children as Victims of Crime in the Criminal Justice
Process......................................................................................................... 384
Anna Wergens

War Children’s Procedural Capacities in International Proceedings...... 399
Helen Hamzei

Chapter Six: Jurisdiction of Criminal Courts

Children and Crime .................................................................................. 424
Knut Sveri

What has the American Juvenile Justice System Done to the Children? ...................................................................................... 430
Lydia Wang

The Swedish Enforcement of Closed Juvenile Care......................... 458
Lisa Ragnesten

The International Criminal Court’s Perspective on Child Soldiers ...... 473
Shamila Batohi

Conclusion............................................................................................... 483
Farhad Malekian