Contents

Preface ix

PART I

1. INTRODUCTION 3
   Interpretation of Written Constitution 6

2. INDEPENDENCE OF JUDICIARY: AN OVERVIEW 14
   1. Emergence of Judiciary as an Institution 16
   2. Independence of the Judiciary: The Concept 17
      (a) The Traditional Concept 18
      (b) The Modern Version 19
   3. Necessity of Judicial Independence 20
   4. Status of Judiciary in India and the Concept of Independence of the Judiciary 25
      (a) Judiciary in the Ancient India 25
      (b) Judiciary During the British Era 25
      (c) Judiciary—the Post-independence Scenario 31
   5. Independence of Judiciary: Judicial Version 33

3. SELECTION OF JUDGES TO THE HIGHER JUDICIARY AND THE PROCESS OF CONSULTATION 37
   1. Introduction 37
2. Appointment of Judges to High Courts 40
3. Selection and Appointment of Judges to the Supreme Court 62
4. Selection and Appointment of the Chief Justice of India 70

4. CONDITIONS OF SERVICE OF JUDGES OF THE HIGHER JUDICIARY 78
   1. Introduction 78
   2. Appointment of Judges to High Courts for Temporary or Short Periods 81
      (a) Term of Appointment of Additional Judges 89
      (b) Extension or Regularization of Additional Judges 90
      (c) Appointment of Additional Judges vis-à-vis Requirement of Permanent Judges 100
   3. Transfer of Judges 108
      (a) Public Interest 112
      (b) Consultation 114
      (c) Judicial Review 118
      (d) Consent—A Valid Norm for Transfer? 123
      (e) Policy Transfers—Are they Constitutional? 124
   4. Removal of Judges 127
      (a) Proof of Misbehaviour under Article 124 130
      (b) Impeachment—the Only Mode of Removal? 141

5. INDEPENDENCE OF THE LOWER JUDICIARY 147
   1. Appointment of District Judges 149
      (a) ‘Consultation’ under Article 233 149
      (b) Scope of the Executive Power 156
   2. Appointment of Other Judges of Subordinate Courts 157
   3. Conditions of Service of Judges of the Lower Judiciary 161
   4. Control of High Courts vis-à-vis Independence of Judiciary 175
PART II

6. THE DOCTRINE OF BASIC STRUCTURE 191
   1. Introduction 191
   2. Constituent Powers and the Power to Amend the Constitution 194
   3. The Doctrine of Basic Structure: Paradigm of Judicial Creativity 197
      (a) The Genesis 197
      (b) Ingredients of Basic Structure: Paradigms of Judicial Innovation 201
      (c) Raison d’être of Basic Structure 206
   4. The Reason for the Delayed Arrival of the Doctrine 216
   5. An Appraisal of the Doctrine 223

7. BASIC STRUCTURE : CRYSTALLISATION OF THE DOCTRINE 232
   1. Parliament-Judiciary Confrontation and the Take-off of the Basic Structure 232
      Democracy and the Rule of Law 233
   2. Forty-second Amendment and the Judicial Gallop 248
      Limited Amendability, Judicial Review and Balancing of Fundamental Rights and Directive Principles 248
   3. Are there Alternatives to Basic Structure? 258
   4. Judiciary and the Basic Structure 263
      (a) Judicial Review as Basic Structure Further Explained 263
      (b) Independence of Judiciary—Another Dimension of Basic Structure 267
   5. New Horizons of Basic Structure 269
      (a) Basic Structure—A Norm for Interpretation of the Constitution 269
      (b) Basic Structure—A Norm for Actions of Constitutional Authorities 270
Judicial Creativity in Constitutional Interpretation

6. Fundamental Rights—Whether Part of Basic Structure 275
7. Basic Structure—A Norm for Legislation? 277
8. Validity of Constitutional Amendment—How Determined? 280
9. Alteration of Basic Structure 284

PART III

8. INDIVIDUAL RIGHTS AND SOCIAL JUSTICE 289
1. Introduction 289
2. Evolution of Fundamental Rights and Directive Principles 293
4. Relation between Fundamental Rights and Directive Principles 301
   (a) The Initial Approach 302
   (b) The Changing Note 303
5. The Creative Judicial Approach 306
   (a) The Concept of Equality 308
      (i) Equal Pay for Equal Work 311
      (ii) Equality and the Socialistic Goals 312
   (b) The Concept of Life under Article 21 318
      (i) Article 21 and Social Justice 318
      (ii) Right to Equality and Article 21 321
      (iii) Right to Education and Right to Life 325
      (iv) Right to Life and International Covenants 330
      (v) Right to Life and Environment 334

9. CONCLUSION 343

Bibliography 358
Index 369