

Regulating Social Media

Legal and Ethical Considerations

EDITED BY Susan J. Drucker AND Gary Gumpert

PETER LANG

New York • Washington, D.C./Baltimore • Bern
Frankfurt • Berlin • Brussels • Vienna • Oxford

CONTENTS

Preface	VII
1. Introduction: Thoughts on Social Media, Law, and Ethics Susan J. Drucker & Gary Gumpert	1
2. Privacy, Identity, and Public Engagement among Digital Natives Star Muir	21
3. Swimming in Cyber-Cesspools: Defamation Law in the Age of Social Media Dale A. Herbeck	44
4. Cyberharassment and Cyberbullying: “There Ought To Be a Law” Juliet Dee	65
5. Brains and Behavior: Addressing Amplified Adolescent Visibility in the Global Village Mary Ann Allision & Eric Allision	89
6. Protection or Prosecution: Julian Assange and Wikileaks Making Waves with a Cybersplash Adrienne Hacker-Daniels	111

7. Revisiting the Right “To Be Let Alone” in the Age of Social Media Warren Sandman	141
8. Transparency, Misrepresentation, and Social Media Douglas C. Strahler & Thomas R. Flynn	153
9. Digital Red Light Zones: Alternative Approach to Regulating Adult Online Social Media Bruce E. Drushel	172
10. Social Media, Public Relations and Ethics Suzanne Berman	190
11. Toward a New Code of Ethics: Social Media in Journalism Kelly Fincham	207
12. Epilogue: Back to the Future Susan J. Drucker & Gary Gumpert	227
Index	235
Case Index	241