The Ambiguous Nation

Case Studies from Southeastern Europe in the 20th Century

Edited by Ulf Brunnbauer und Hannes Grandits

2013

OLDENBOURG VERLAG MÜNCHEN
Table of contents

I. Introduction

1. Hannes Grandits, Ulf Brunnbauer
   The Ambiguous Nation. Socialist and Post-Socialist Nation-Building in Southeastern Europe in Perspective ............................................. 9

2. Holm Sundhaussen
   Ambiguities of "Natural" and "Artificial" Nations: Introductory Remarks .... 43

II. Power Politics and Nation-Building

3. Husnija Kamberović
   Between Muslimdom, Bosniandom, Yugoslavdom and Bosniakdom: The Political Elite in Bosnia-Herzegovina in the late 1960s and early 1970s .... 57

4. Admir Mulaosmanović
   The Identity Factory. Agrokomerc and the Population of the Bihaćka Krajina .... 77

5. Ala Švet
   Explaining Economy in the Transnistrian Regional Identity Project: A Case Study .......... 103

6. Ćarna Brković
   Ambiguous Notions of "National Self" in Montenegro .................................. 131

III. The Role of Intellectuals

7. Đzenita Sarač Rujanac
   Constructing the Nationalist Image and Confronting "Muslim nationalists": The Lawsuit against Muslim Intellectuals in Sarajevo in 1983 ........... 153

8. Ernis Lafazanovski
   The Intellectual as Place of Memory: Krste Petkov Misirkov’s Role in the Macedonian and Moldovan National Movements ................................ 179

9. Irena Stefoska
   Nation, Education and Historiographic Narratives: The Case of the Socialist Republic of Macedonia (1944–1990) ........................................ 195
IV. Contested Memories and Histories ............................................. 231

10. Vladimir Dulović
    "Mount Lovćen and Njegoš between "Aleksandar’s Chapel" and
    "Milošević’s Mausoleum": Symbolic Orientation and Re-orientation
    in Montenegro in the Socialist Era ........................................ 233

11. Gabriela Welch
    (Re-)Producing Spaces, Deriving Identities: Symbolic Appropriations of World War Two Commemorations in the Republic of Moldova ........ 261

12. Ludmila D. Cojocaru
    "Republica Moldova, Patria Mă“ The Moldovan Nation-Building Project
    in Search of Reification and Legitimacy .................................. 283

13. Saša Nedeljković
    Local Memory and Identity Strategies of Montenegrin Immigrants in the Village of Lovćenac in Vojvodina .................................................. 307

V. The Nation in Popular Culture and Arts ..................................... 329

14. Ivona Opetcheska Tatarcheska
    Dance Culture and National Identity Politics in the Republic of Macedonia ... 331

15. Rozita Dimova
    The Poet in the "Biblical" Land: Etatisation of Art and Art Festivals in the Republic of Macedonia ..................................................... 353

16. Lidija Vujačić
    Building a Country’s Image Through Popular Culture: How Carnival Festivities and Music Events Have Redefined the Image of Montenegro ............. 371

VI. Significations of the Nation ................................................... 389

17. Virgiliu Birlădeanu
    From Bessarabia to the Republic of Moldova: Inventing, Constructing and Imagining National Spaces .................................................. 391

18. Iva Lučić
    Making the “Nation” Visible: Socialist Census Policy in Bosnia
    in the early 1970s ......................................................... 423

19. Žarko Trajanoski
    “National” Flags in the Republic of Macedonia .......................... 449

Contributors ................................................................. 479