Regulatory Competition in the Internal Market

Comparing Models for Corporate Law, Securities Law and Competition Law

Barbara Gabor

Public Official, European Commission, Belgium and member of Tilburg University’s Law and Economics group ‘TILEC’

PRIVATE REGULATION

Edward Elgar

Cheltenham, UK • Northampton, MA, USA
Contents

Foreword ix
Preface xii
Acknowledgements xv

1 Regulatory competition: what it is and what remains to be explored 1
   1. Introduction 1
   2. Regulatory competition from Tiebout to corporate charters and beyond 2
   3. Different forms of competition 12
   4. Measuring the ‘outcome’ of regulatory competition 20
   5. The actors of competition and their incentives 30
   6. Conclusions and the subject of further inquiry 50

2 Regulatory competition in European company law 55
   1. Introduction 55
   2. Economic theories on regulation and regulatory competition in company law 55
   3. The channels of competitive interaction 69
   4. Current forms of competitive interaction in European company law 85
   5. A theoretical inquiry: how would different forms of regulatory competition work in company law? 106
   6. Conclusions 119

3 Regulatory competition in European securities law 124
   1. Introduction 124
   2. What are securities markets and why regulate them? 124
   3. Identifying the legal actors – allocation of competences 148
   4. The scope for divergence in the current regulatory landscape 160
   5. Channels of competition present in EU securities law 168
4 Regulatory competition in EU competition law

1 Introduction: legal framework and regulatory competition in competition law 190
2 Which channels of competitive interaction are available? 196
3 Network governance and legal actors' interaction 206
4 Potential competitive pressures in private enforcement 224
5 A theoretical inquiry: how would regulatory competition work in competition law? 245
6 Conclusions on legal competition in competition law 254

5 Regulatory competition in the Internal Market

1 Introduction 256
2 Regulatees' role in regulatory competition 257
3 Legal actors' role in shaping regulatory competition 264
4 The outcome of regulatory competition 273
5 Regulatory competition and the Internal Market: the legal framework 276
6 Regulatory competition within the Internal Market: some recent trends and general observations 292
7 Conclusions 297

Bibliography 306
Index 329