Contents

1 Social Psychology and Problem-Solving Courts: Judicial Roles and Decision Making ........................................ 1
   Richard L. Wiener and Leah Georges

Part I Dependency Specialty Courts

2 The Marriage of Science and the Law in Child Welfare Cases ........... 23
   Cindy S. Lederman

3 Exploring the Value-Added of Specialized Problem-Solving Courts for Dependency Cases ...................................... 33
   Sophia I. Gatowski, Shirley A. Dobbin and Alicia Summers

4 Dependency Courts and Science ........................................... 55
   Victoria Weisz

Part II Domestic Violence Specialty Courts

5 Unified Family Courts: An Interdisciplinary Framework and a Problem-Solving Approach ........................................ 65
   Barbara A. Babb

6 Domestic Violence Courts: The Case of Lady Justice Meets the Serpents of the Caduceus ........................................... 83
   Nancy Wolff

7 Gender Issues in Problem-Solving Courts .................................. 113
   Anna Williams Shavers
Part III  Mental Health Courts, Global and Philosphic View of Problem Solving Courts

8  Mental Health Courts May Work, But Does It Matter If They Do? . . . 133
    John Petrila

9  The Past, Present, and Future of Mental Health Courts ............... 147
    Allison D. Redlich

10 Mental Health Courts: Competence, Responsibility, and Proportionality ........................................ 163
    Robert F. Schopp

11 The Evolution of Problem-Solving Courts in Australia and New Zealand: A Trans-Tasman Comparative Perspective .... 185
    Elizabeth Richardson, Katey Thom and Brian McKenna

12 Problem Solving Courts: Therapeutic Jurisprudence in Practice .... 211
    Bruce J. Winick

Part IV  Epilogue

13 The Intended and Unintended Consequences of Problem-Solving Courts ........................................... 239
    Eve M. Brank and Joshua A. Haby

Index ......................................................... 253