Controversies in Innocence Cases in America

Edited by

SARAH LUCY COOPER
Birmingham City University, UK

ASHGATE
Contents

Notes on Contributors vii
Foreword by the Arizona Justice Project xi
Acknowledgments xv
List of Abbreviations xvii

PART I: THE RISE OF THE INNOCENCE MOVEMENT IN AMERICA

1 Innocence Found: The New Revolution in American Criminal Justice 3
   Keith A. Findley

2 The Innocence Network: From Beginning to Branding 21
   Jacqueline McMurtrie

PART II: HOW ARE INNOCENT PEOPLE CONVICTED?
COMMON CAUSES OF WRONGFUL CONVICTIONS

3 Eyewitnesses and Erroneous Convictions: An American Conundrum 41
   Jules Epstein

4 Disputed Interrogation Techniques in America: True and False Confessions
   and the Estimation and Valuation of Type I and II Errors 57
   Deborah Davis, Richard A. Leo, Michael J. Williams

5 Innocence and the Suppression of Exculpatory Evidence by Prosecutors 73
   Lissa Griffin

6 The Two-Legged Stool: The Asymmetry of American Aid for the Rule of Law and the Risk of Wrongful Conviction 87
   Carrie Leonetti

PART III: REALITY BITES: PROBLEMS WITH INVESTIGATING, PROVING AND DEFINING INNOCENCE

7 The Emerging Role of Innocence Lawyer and the Need for Role-Differentiated
   Standards of Professional Conduct 123
   D. Michael Risinger and Lesley C. Risinger

8 When Finality and Innocence Collide 139
   Carrie Sperling

9 Narrowing the Construction of “Innocence”: Societal and Constitutional Consequences 159
   Francine Banner
PART IV: INNOCENCE REFORM

10 Towards a Theory of Innocence Policy Reform
Nancy Marion and Marvin Zalman
175

11 Innocence Commissions in America: Ten Years After
Sarah Lucy Cooper
197

Index
219