Abortion Law in Transnational Perspective

Cases and Controversies

Edited by
Rebecca J. Cook, Joanna N. Erdman, and Bernard M. Dickens

UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA PRESS
PHILADELPHIA
Introduction  1
Rebecca J. Cook, Joanna N. Erdman, and Bernard M. Dickens

PART I. CONSTITUTIONAL VALUES AND REGULATORY REGIMES

1. The Constitutionalization of Abortion  13
Reva B. Siegel

in European Constitutionalism  36
Ruth Rubio-Marin

3. Women’s Rights in the Abortion Decision of the Slovak Constitutional Court  56
Adriana Lamačková

4. Proportionality in the Constitutional Review of Abortion Law  77
Verónica Undurraga

5. A Functionalist Approach to Comparative
Abortion Law  98
Rachel Rebouché
PART II. PROCEDURAL JUSTICE AND LIBERAL ACCESS

6. The Procedural Turn: Abortion
   at the European Court of Human Rights 121
   Joanna N. Erdman

7. The Struggle Against Informal Rules
   on Abortion in Argentina 143
   Paola Bergallo

8. Reforming African Abortion Laws and Practice: The Place of Transparency 166
   Charles G. Ngwena

PART III. FRAMING AND CLAIMING RIGHTS

9. The Medical Framework and
   Early Medical Abortion in the U.K.:
   How Can a State Control Swallowing? 189
   Sally Sheldon

10. The Right to Conscience 210
    Bernard M. Dickens

11. Catholic Constitutionalism on Sex,
    Women, and the Beginning of Life 239
    Julieta Lemaitre

12. Bringing Abortion into the Brazilian
    Public Debate: Legal Strategies for Anencephalic
    Pregnancy 258
    Luis Roberto Barroso

13. Toward Transformative Equality
    in Nepal: The Lakshmi Dhikta Decision 279
    Melissa Upreti
PART IV. NARRATIVES AND SOCIAL MEANING

14. Reckoning with Narratives of Innocent Suffering in Transnational Abortion Litigation 303
   Lisa M. Kelly

15. Narratives of Prenatal Personhood in Abortion Law 327
   Alejandro Madrazo

16. Stigmatized Meanings of Criminal Abortion Law 347
   Rebecca J. Cook

Table of Cases 371

Table of Legislation, Treaties, and Other Relevant Instruments 379

Notes 387

Contributors 457

Index 459

Acknowledgments 471