The Elgar Companion to the International Court of Justice

Robert Kolb

Professor of Public International Law, University of Geneva, Switzerland

Assisted by Thiago Braz Jardim Oliveira

Edward Elgar
Cheltenham, UK • Northampton, MA, USA
Contents

Preface vi

1. The idea and creation of an international court 1
2. From the Permanent Court of International Justice to the International Court of Justice 22
3. The institutional background to the Court 33
4. The ICJ and other tribunals in The Hague 53
5. The UN Charter, the ICJ Statute, the Rules of Court and the Practice Directions 63
6. The composition of the Court 100
7. The judges of the Court: Some portraits 133
8. The Registry 157
9. The contentious jurisdiction of the Court and admissibility of claims 166
10. The fundamental principles of the law of the ICJ 216
11. Advisory proceedings 258
12. Procedure and process 299
13. The jurisprudence of the ICJ 375
14. Conclusion and outlook 404

Appendix: Judgments, Advisory Opinions and Orders rendered by the ICJ 408

Bibliography 462

Index 473