Contents

List of Abbreviations xi
Notes on Contributors xv

Global Health: An Introduction
Michael Freeman 1
Keynote Address: Justice and Global Health
James Orbinski 11

A. RIGHT TO HEALTH

1. What is Health?
Charles Foster and Jonathan Herring 23

2. Pathways Towards a Framework Convention on Global Health:
   Political Mobilization for the Human Right to Health
Kent Buse, Lawrence O. Gostin, and Eric A. Friedman 37

3. The Bloodless Ideological Supreme Court Battle over the Affordable
   Care Act and the ‘Right to Health’ in America
George J. Annas 63

   Network for Health and Human Rights, Western Cape, South Africa
   Maria Stuttaford, Damaris Kiewiets, Wendy Nefdt, Vanessa Reynolds,
   Glynis Rhodes, Lulama Sigasana, and Leslie London 76

5. Access to Essential Medicines in Kenya: Intellectual Property, Anti-
   Counterfeiting, and the Right to Health
John Harrington 94

B. VULNERABLE POPULATIONS

   Belinda Bennett and Terry Carney 121

7. Legally Vulnerable: What is Vulnerability and Who is Vulnerable?
   Hazel Biggs and Caroline Jones 133

8. The ECHR, Health Care, and Irregular Migrants
   Sylvie Da Lomba 149

9. Rights-based Approaches to HIV in the Middle East and North Africa Region
   David Patterson, Shereen El Feki, and Khadija Moalla 165

10. Indigenous People, Emerging Research, and Global Health
    Mark Henaghan 182

11. Human Trafficking and Organ Trade: Does the Law Really Care for the Health of People?
    Daniel Sperling 193
   Kerry Petersen

13. Maternal Mortality and Human Rights: From Theory to Practice
   Judith Bueno de Mesquita

   Maya Sabatello

15. What Can Human Rights Do for Women’s Health?
   Kristen Hessler

   Jacquineau Azésop

C. ETHICAL ISSUES

17. Adding Nonideal Agents to Work Out a Pending Debt
   Florencia Luna

18. Global Ageing: Demographic and Ethical Challenges to Population Health and Development Policies
   Michal Engelman

19. Libertarian Paternalism and Public Health Nudges
   Stephen Holland

20. Interrogation Medicine?
   M. Gregg Bloche

D. LEGAL RESPONSES

   John Coggon

22. International Human Rights Laws and Principles: Cornerstone for Defining Health Inequalities and Health Equity
   Paula Braveman

23. Exposing the Limits of the Law? Biotechnological Challenges to Global Health
   Sara Fovargue

   Gwendolyn Roberts Majette

25. Global Health Law: Aspirational, Paradoxical, or Oxymoronic?
   George P. Smith, II

   Tom A. Faunce, Anton Wasson, and Kim Crow
Contents ix

27. Bridging the Health/Law Divide in Global Health Law: The Role of Law Professors 478
Scott Burris

28. International Law and Global Health 492
Geoffrey B. Cockerham and William C. Cockerham

E. GOVERNANCE

29. Competition and Cooperation in Global Health Governance: The Impact of Multiple Framings 513
Colin McInnes and Anne Roemer Mahler

30. The Interlocking World of Global Health Governance: The Tobacco Industry, Bilateral Investment Treaties, and Health Policy 532
Hadii M. Mamudu

31. Mission (Im)possible? The WHO as a ‘Norm Entrepreneur’ in Global Health Governance 559
Obijiofor Aginam

32. Policy Space for Health in the Context of Emerging European Trade Policies 574
Meri Koivusalo and Nicola Watt

33. An Agenda for Normative Policy Analysis in the Study of Global Health Governance 593
Benjamin Mason Meier

34. The Contributions of Science and Politics to Global Food Safety Law 609
Erik Millstone

Index 635