Contents

Part I Foundations

1 European and American Perspectives on Behavioural Law and Economics ........................................................... 3
   Thomas S. Ulen

2 The Next Generation of Behavioural Law and Economics .............. 17
   Avishalom Tor

3 From Rational Choice to Behavioural Economics ...................... 31
   Klaus Mathis and Ariel David Steffen

Part II Applications

4 Why Do We Need Responsive Regulation and Behavioural Research in EU Internal Market Law? .......................... 51
   Kai Pumphagen

5 Can EU Consumer Law Benefit From Behavioural Insights? .......... 71
   Anne-Lise Sibony

6 Buttons, Boxes, Ticks, and Trust ............................................. 107
   Martin Engel and Johanna Stark

7 Loss Aversion, Omission Bias and the Civil Standard of Proof ....... 125
   Mark Schweizer

8 How Role and Framing Influence Litigants’ Perception of Civil Procedure ............................................................... 147
   Edgar Klinger and Günter Bierbrauer
9 Investment Suitability Requirements in the Light of Behavioural Findings ............................................................................................. 159
Rainer Baisch and Rolf H. Weber

10 Retail Investors and Disclosure Requirements ........................................... 193
Geneviève Helleringer

11 Behavioural Antitrust ............................................................................................ 211
Andreas Heinemann

Mariusz J. Golecki

Index ........................................................................................................................................... 269