Delivering Family Justice in the 21st Century

Edited by
Mavis Maclean
John Eekelaar
and Benoit Bastard

Oñati International Series in Law and Society
A SERIES PUBLISHED FOR THE OñATI INSTITUTE FOR THE SOCIOLOGY OF LAW

H A R T PUBLISHING
OXFORD AND PORTLAND, OREGON
2015
Table of Contents

Acknowledgements ........................................................................................................... v
List of Contributors ......................................................................................................... ix

Introduction ........................................................................................................................ 1

Part I: Law and Delivering Family Justice

1. The Neoliberal Context of Family Law Reform in British Columbia, Canada: Implications for Access to (Family) Justice ................................................................. 15
   Rachel Treloar

2. The Revised Family Court System in New Zealand: Secret Justice and Privatisation .......................................................................................................................... 39
   Bill Atkin

   Carol Rogerson

4. Performing the Marriage Act Straight: The Legal Regulation of Marriage in the Australian Civil Wedding Ceremony ............................................. 69
   Becky Batagol

Part II: Judges and Courts Delivering Family Justice

   Emilie Biland, Muriel Mille and Hélène Steinmetz

6. Family Justice in Bulgaria: The Old System and New Demands ........... 107
   Velina Todorova

7. Family Courts and Family Cases in Poland and other Post-Communist Countries .............................................................. 121
   Małgorzata Fuszara and Jacek Kurczewski

Part III: Current Context of Practice and Policy

I: Bypassing Courts

8. Paths to Justice in Divorce Cases in England and Wales ......................... 145
   Rosemary Hunter, Anne Barlow, Janet Smithson and Jan Ewing
Table of Contents

9. Family Lawyers and Multi-agency Approaches:
   Why Don’t Lawyers Work with Other Service Providers? .................. 163
   Angela Melville, Karen Laing and Frank Stephen

    Jane Mair, Fran Wasoff and Kirsteen Mackay

II: Reducing Public Funding

11. Access to Justice in Spain in Times of Austerity, with Special Reference to Family Justice ................................................ 199
    Teresa Piconto-Novales

12. Legal Aid, Fundamental Rights and Family Issues ....................... 215
    Encarna Roca Trias

13. Taking Responsibility? Legal Aid Reform and Litigants in Person in England ............................................................ 223
    Liz Trinder

    Hilary Sommerlad

15. Casualties of Friendly Fire: Counter Productive Campaigning on Public Funded Legal Services ...................................... 265
    Peter G Harris

Part IV: Innovation in Delivering Family Justice

    Benoit Bastard, David Delvaux, Christian Moubama and Frédéric Schoenaers

17. When is a Family Lawyer a Lawyer? ........................................... 305
    Lisa Webley

18. New Ways to Seek Legal Information and Advice on Family Matters in England and Wales: From Professional Legal Services to Google and Private Ordering .................................................. 323
    Mavis Maclean

19. Can there be Family Justice Without Law? ................................. 341
    John Eekelaar

Index ............................................................................................................................ 355