Ginger Williams & Jennifer Leigh Disney

“It Doesn’t Have to Be This Way”: Hacker Perspectives on Privacy
Kevin Steinmetz & Jurg Gerber

The Victor Jara Case and the Long Struggle against Impunity in Chile
J. Patrice McSherry

Grassroots Peacemaking: The Paradox of Reconciliation in El Salvador
Ruth Elizabeth Velásquez Estrada

+ SPECIAL SECTION: PENAL ABOLITION AND PRISON REFORM +

Utopian Action and Participatory Disputes
Vincenzo Ruggiero

Prison Abolition in the UK: They Dare Not Speak Its Name?
Mick Ryan & Tony Ward

Trouble with the Child in the Carceral State
Erica R. Meiners

Playing the “Treasury Card” to Contest Prison Expansion: Lessons from a Public Criminology Campaign
Justin Piché

Abolitionism and the Paradox of Penal Reform in Australia: Indigenous Women, Colonial Patriarchy, and Cooption
Eileen Baldry, Bree Carlton & Chris Cunneen

Commentary: “Tweaking Armageddon”: The Potential and Limits of Conditions of Confinement Campaigns
Rachel Herzing

Book Symposium: Richard Quinney’s The Social Reality of Crime: A Marked Departure from and Reinterpretation of Traditional Criminology
John F. Wozniak, with Francis T. Cullen & Tony Platt