COMPETITION LAW CHALLENGES IN THE NEXT DECADE

Sofia OLIVEIRA PAIS (ed.)

Euroclio
Vol. 94
CONTENTS

Preface ........................................................................................................................................... 9

PART I. ANTITRUST PRIVATE ENFORCEMENT:
NATIONAL PERSPECTIVES ON THE DAMAGES DIRECTIVE

Competition law: achievements and challenges ................................................................. 13
António Ferreira Gomes

Antitrust private enforcement and collective redress in Portugal ........................................................................................................... 19
Sofia Oliveira Pais

Reflections on damage actions – the Asphalt case .................................................................................................................................... 35
Petri Kuoppamäki

Is this really a reform to facilitate follow-on actions for antitrust damages? ................................................................................................................................ 59
Anna Piszcz

Private enforcement of competition law on trial – two study cases ........................................................................................................... 75
Henrique Sousa Antunes

Actions for damages under Portuguese Law for infringements of the competition law ................................................................................ 89
Agostinho Guedes

PART II. EXCLUSIONARY ABUSES: RECENT TRENDS

Upside down: The EU jurisprudence on aftermarkets ......................................................... 101
Paul Nihoul

Distinguishing legitimate price competition from unlawful exclusionary behaviour .......................................................................................................... 123
Alison Jones

Exclusionary abuses: refusal to license intellectual property rights .................................................................................................... 159
Rosa Greaves and Svetlana Nasibyan
PART III. STATE AID: NEW REGULATIONS

The evolution of the “effects on trade” and “distortion of competition” requirements under the EU State aid regime .......... 197
   Manuel Fontaine Campos

The hard side of soft power – the Portuguese Competition Authority recommendation to the Government on stranded costs in the electricity sector .......................................................... 215
   Mariana Tavares

Competition in the aviation sector: the problem with public financing of airports and airlines ........................................ 229
   Isabel Fernández Torres

The Portuguese Development Financial Institution and State aids .......................................................... 247
   Nuno Castro Marques