JUSTICE

The China Experience

Edited by

FLORA SAPIO
Australian National University, Canberra

SUSAN TREVASKES
Griffith University, Queensland

SARAH BIDDULPH
University of Melbourne, Victoria

ELISA NESOSSI
Australian National University, Canberra
CONTENTS

List of Contributors vii

PART I Constructing the Idea of Justice: Traditional and Contemporary Perspectives 1
1 The Expression of Justice in China 3
   FLORA SAPIO, SUSAN TREVASKES, SARAH BIDDULPH AND ELISA NESOSSI
2 State, Society and the Justice Debate in Contemporary China 26
   JOSHUA ROSENZWEIG
3 High Justice versus Low Justice: The Legacy of Confucian and Legalist Notions of Justice 67
   DELIA LIN
4 Rawls Rejected, Ignored and Radicalised: Debating Procedural Justice in China 92
   SAMULI SEPPÄNEN

PART II The Performance of State Justice 111
5 Weaponising the Rule of Law in China 113
   SUSAN TREVASKES
6 Wrongful Convictions: The Useful Injustice? 141
   ELISA NESOSSI
7 ‘Rich Sister’ Wu Ying, Judicial Drama and Justice 168
   FLORA SAPIO
TABLE OF CONTENTS

PART III
Expressing Justice in the Public Arena

8 Justice in the PRC: How the Chinese Communist Party Has Struggled with Managing Public Opinion and the Administration of Criminal Justice in the Internet Age
Ira Belkin

9 Justice, Wrongs and Rights: Understanding Traditional and Liberal Conceptions of Justice through the Lens of Contemporary Chinese Advocacy Initiatives
Eva Pils

10 Perceived Justice of Migrant Workers in China
Xin He, Lungang Wang and Su Yang

PART IV
Justice in Action and Law

11 In Search of Justice: China's Elusive Civil Litigation Reforms
Margaret Woo

12 Justice at the Margins: Notions of Justice in the Punishment of Prostitution
Sarah Biddulph

13 Bringing Politics Back In: Access to Justice and Labour Dispute Resolution in China
Hualing Fu

14 Of Ceremonial Columns
Flora Sapiro, Susan Trevaskes, Sarah Biddulph and Elisa Nesossi

Index
387