ZAPOTEC WOMEN

LYNN STEPHEN

UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS PRESS, AUSTIN

1991
Contents

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS xi

1. Introduction 1
3. Julia, Cristina, Angela, Alicia, and Imelda: Five Women's Stories 40
4. Setting the Scene: The Zapotecs of Teotitlán del Valle, Oaxaca 63
6. Weaving in the Fast Lane: Ethnicity, Class, and Gender Relations under Commercial Capitalism 118
7. One Man, One Vote: Changes in the Civil-Religious Hierarchy and Their Impact on Women 156
8. Fiesta: The Contemporary Dynamics of Women's Ritual Participation 178
9. Hidden Voices: Women's Political Participation in Teotitlán 208
10. Creating New Political Spaces: Mexican Peasant Women in Local Politics 228
11. Insights from Teotitlán: Traditional Domains of Female Power and Rural Women's Political and Economic Futures 250

APPENDIXES
A. Research Methodology 261
B. Total Cash Outflow and Percentages Invested in Weaving, Household, Ritual, and Other Expenses 269

NOTES 271

GLOSSARY OF SPANISH AND ZAPOTEC TERMS 277

BIBLIOGRAPHY 285

INDEX 307