CONTENTS

Preface ix
Acknowledgments xi

PART I ESTABLISHING SHOTS

1. Toward a History of Social Documentary in Latin America 3
   Julianne Burton

2. Rediscovering Documentary: Cultural Context and Intentionality 31
   Michael Chanan

   Julianne Burton

PART II WIDE ANGLES

4. The Voice of the Other: Brazilian Documentary in the 1970s 87
   Jean-Claude Bernardet

5. Chilean Documentary: Continuity and Disjunction 109
   Zuzana M. Pick

6. Santiago Alvarez: From Dramatic Form to Direct Cinema 131
   John Mraz
Contents

7. Left, Right, and Center: El Salvador on Film
   Pat Aufderheide
   151

8. Collective Experience, Synthetic Forms:
   El Salvador's Radio Venceremos
   John Hess
   173

9. On the Trail of Independent Video
   Karen Ranucci, with Julianne Burton
   193

PART III TEXTS IN CLOSE-UP

10. The Voice of the Present over Images of the Past: Historical Narration in Memories of a Mexican
    Margarita de Orellana
    211

11. The Sociological Model or His Master's Voice: Ideological Form in Viramundo
    Jean-Claude Bernardet
    217

12. Cuba's Latin American Weekly Newsreel: Cinematic Language and Political Effectiveness
    Jorge Fraga
    239

13. The Hour of the Furnaces and the Two Avant-Gardes
    Robert Stam
    251

14. The Battle of Chile: Documentary, Political Process, and Representation
    Ana M. Lopez
    267

15. Nicaraguan Reconstruction Documentary: Toward a Theory and Praxis of Participatory Cinema and Dialogic Address
    John Ramirez
    289

16. Women Make Media: Three Modes of Production
    Julia Lesage
    315
PART IV BEYOND THE DOCUMENTARY/FICTION DICHOTOMY

17. Bay of Pigs: Bertolt Brecht Meets John Wayne
   John Hess
   351

18. Iracema: Transcending Cinema Verité
   Ismail Xavier
   361

19. Transitional States: Creative Complicities with the Real in Man Marked to Die: Twenty Years Later and Patriamada
   Julianne Burton
   373

20. At the Limits of Documentary: Hypertextual Transformation and the New Latin American Cinema
   Ana M. Lopez
   403

Guide to Distributors
435

Index to Films, Videos, Filmmakers, and Video Producers
439

Notes on Contributors
453