

THE POLICING OF POLITICS IN THE TWENTIETH CENTURY

 Historical Perspectives

---

Edited by

Mark Mazower

Berghahn Books
Providence • Oxford

CONTENTS

---

Introduction: Political Police and the European Nation-State in the Nineteenth Century	1
Clive Emsley
1. A Republican Political Police? Political Policing in France under the Third Republic, 1875–1940	27
Jean-Marc Berlière
2. Continuity in Policing Politics in Italy, 1920–1960	57
Jonathan Dunnage
3. Policing Politics in Germany from Weimar to the Stasi	91
Herbert Reinke
4. The International Criminal Police Commission and the Fight against Communism, 1923–1945	107
Cyrille Fijnaut
5. Policing the Anti-Communist State in Greece, 1922–1974	129
Mark Mazower
6. Police and Government in Northern Ireland, 1922–1969	151
Keith Jeffery
7. Securing the British Empire: Policing and Colonial Order, 1920–1960	167
David Killingray
8. Political Policing in the United States: The Evolution of the FBI, 1917–1956	191
Athan G. Theoharis

9. The Tokkô and Political Police in Japan, 1911–1945 Elise K. Tipton	213
Conclusion: The Policing of Politics in Historical Perspective Mark Mazower	241
Notes on Contributors	257
Index	260