Contents

List of Tables and Figures ix

Preface xi

1 Regime Transitions: An Historical Overview, 1815-1986 1
   Reversion or Innovation? 3
   Most Transitions are Autonomous, 4
   What Factors Determine the Nature of the Successor Regime? 5
   What Prospect Democracy? 9
   What Happens to the Economy? 13
   Historical Transitions and Successor Regimes: A General Portrait, 14
   The Transition Countries Sample, 15

2 Collapse 19
   Systemic Failure and the Theories of Regime Durability, 22
   Theories and Types of Regime Collapse, 25
   Reform Creates a New Regime, 37

3 Transition 41
   What is a Transition? 42
   What is to be Done? 43
   Institutional Design, 44
   Obstacles on the Road to a New Regime, 48
   Contesting Subcultures and the Special Problem of Language, 49
   Political Conflicts: Old Institutions, the Military, Corruption and Extremist Parties, 53
   Political Conflict and Regime Transitions, 59