Presidential Institutions and Democratic Politics
Comparing Regional and National Contexts
EDITED BY KURT VON METTENHEIM

The Johns Hopkins University Press
Baltimore and London
Contents

Preface vii

INTRODUCTION Presidential Institutions and Democratic Politics
Kurt von Mettenheim 1

PART I The American Context
The Separation of Powers in the United States

CHAPTER 1 The American Presidency: A Separationist Perspective
Charles O. Jones 19

CHAPTER 2 The Performance of Presidents and Prime Ministers and of Presidential and Parliamentary Systems
Bert A. Rockman 45

PART II The Western European Context
Parliamentarism, the Separation of Powers, and French Presidentialism

CHAPTER 3 The Separation of Powers in Parliamentary Systems
B. Guy Peters 67

CHAPTER 4 Institutions, Political Poker, and Regime Evolution in France
John T. S. Keeler and Martin A. Schain 84

PART III The Latin American Context
Rebuilding Presidential Institutions and Democracy

CHAPTER 5 Hybrid Presidentialism in Bolivia
Eduardo A. Gamarra 109

CHAPTER 6 Brazilian Presidentialism: Shifting Comparative Perspectives from Europe to the Americas
Kurt von Mettenheim 136
PART IV The Eastern European Context
Presidential Institutions and the Dual Transition to Democratic Politics and Market Economies

CHAPTER 7 Presidents and the Transition in Eastern Europe
Valerie Bunce 161

CHAPTER 8 Semipresidentialism, Charisma, and Democratic Institutions in Poland
Michael Bernhard 177

CHAPTER 9 President and Parliament in the Russian Federation
Jonathan Harris 204

CONCLUSION Presidential Institutions, Democracy, and Comparative Politics
Kurt von Mettenheim and Bert A. Rockman 237

Notes 247
Contributors 291
Index 295