FABLES OF RESPONSIBILITY

Aberrations and Predicaments in Ethics and Politics

Thomas Keenan
Contents

Introduction: Literature and Democracy 1

§ 1. Left to Our Own Devices:
On the Impossibility of Justice 7

PART I. FABLES

§ 2. Examples of Responsibility:
Aesop, with Philosophy 45

§ 3. Freedom, the Law of Another Fable:
Sade’s Insurrection 70

PART II. RHETORIC

§ 4. The Point Is to (Ex)Change It:
Reading ‘Capital,’ Rhetorically 99

§ 5. The “Paradox” of Knowledge and Power:
Foucault on the Bias 134
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Contents</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Conclusion: No Man's Land—Ideology,</td>
<td>175</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Between Ethics and Politics</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Notes</td>
<td>193</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Index</td>
<td>245</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>