New Public Sector Marketing

DAVID CHAPMAN
Manager of International Business Development, Sheffield Business School
Visiting Professor, Masaryk Institute of Advanced Studies, Prague
Chairman, Chartered Institute of Marketing

THEO COWDELL
Principal Lecturer, School of Cultural Studies, Sheffield Hallam University
6 Service, control and quality
Chapter overview • Key learning outcomes • Introduction • The transaction • The importance of customers • Customers and expectations • Issues of response • Concepts of control and quality • Performance measurement • Positioning and strategy • Summary • Implications for management • Issues for discussion • References

7 The political dimension
Chapter overview • Key learning outcomes • Introduction • Politics as power • Recent developments in UK politics • The political environment • The general political climate • Inter-organisational politics • Politics as power within the organisation • Defining social need • Bureaucracy • Sources of power • Summary • Implications for management • Issues for discussion • References

8 Price, value and exchange
Chapter overview • Key learning outcomes • Introduction • Defining price • Some concepts of market pricing • Pricing policies for the commercial enterprise • Pricing in the public sector • Impact of changes in price and volume where revenue is a function of demand • Impact of changes in activity levels where revenue is allocated • Methods of pricing on cost • The determination of full-cost pricing • Using cost data for marketing decisions • Effect of apportionment of overheads and utilisation factors • Full-cost pricing and compulsory competitive tendering • Full-cost pricing in internal markets • The effect of taxation on users' price perceptions • Non-monetary price factors in the public sector • The costs of cost-based pricing • Summary • Implications for management • Issues for discussion • References

9 Communication and promotion
Chapter overview • Key learning outcomes • Introduction • Communication • Promotion and the media • Promotion in the public sector • The regulation of promotion • Special considerations for public sector promotion • A public sector marketing mix • Marketing and communications techniques • Summary • Implications for management • Issues for discussion • References

10 Information and the learning organisation
Chapter overview • Key learning outcomes • Introduction • Marketing intelligence • The nature and importance of information • The nature of marketing research • The marketing research process • Uses of marketing research • Sampling techniques • Measurement • The impact of information technology • The need for continuous learning • Summary • Implications for management • Issues for discussion • References

11 Marketing, attitudes and culture
Chapter overview • Key learning outcomes • Introduction • The formation of attitudes • Attitudes and marketing • Attitudes within and towards the public sector • Language • Organisational culture • Cultures and change • Marketing as a culture • Summary • Implications for management • Issues for discussion • References
12 Marketing strategy and planning

Chapter overview • Key learning outcomes • Introduction • What is strategy? • The role of strategic management • Analysis • Strategic alternatives and choice • Implementation • Conclusions • Summary • Implications for management • Issues for discussion • References

Appendix – Case studies

1 Pubton Printing Services Department
2 Marketing in a hospital trust
3 Meeting the leisure needs of Pubton's Asian population
4 Pubton Local Education Authority – changing from a producer-led to a customer-orientated philosophy
5 Strategic problems for the Employment Service
6 Marketing and the introduction of the Private Finance Initiative into the NHS
7 Pubton's Sandbags Arts Centre
8 The South Yorkshire Supertram
9 The student choice scheme at Postlethwaite University, Pubton
10 Developments at Ponsonby Road Children's Centre, Pubton
11 The Health and Safety Executive and marketing
12 The Pubton Water-power Industrial Museum's marketing plan

Name Index

Subject Index