Understanding Governance

Policy Networks, Governance, Reflexivity and Accountability

R.A.W. Rhodes

Open University Press
Buckingham • Philadelphia
Contents

List of tables
ix

Preface and acknowledgements
x

Part I: Introduction

1. Governing without Government: order and change in British politics 3

Part II: Theory

2. Policy networks in British political science 29
3. The new governance: governing without Government 46

Part III: Methodology

4. The institutional approach 63

Part IV: Applications

5. Reinventing Whitehall, 1979–95: hollowing out the state? 87
6. Now nobody understands the system: the changing face of British local government, 1979–95 112
7. The European Union, cohesion policy and sub-national authorities in the United Kingdom 137
Contents

Part V: Developments

8  From institutions to dogma: tradition, eclecticism and ideology in the study of British Public Administration 165 9  Towards a post-modern Public Administration: epoch, epistemology or narrative? 180

References 201
Name index 226
Subject index 229