CONTENTS

Preface 1
Acknowledgments 5

1. Theoretical Approaches

Richard Rorty
Justice as a Larger Loyalty 9

Erikh Solovyov
Law as Politicians’ Morality 23

María Pía Lara
Justice and Solidarity: The Case of Recognition 37

Kenneth Baynes
Equality and Difference in Democratic Theory 51

Ron Bontekoe
Grounding a Theory of Rights in Fallibilist Epistemology 61

2. Contemporary Problems of Application

Frank Cunningham
On Relating Justice and Democracy: A Strategy and a Hypothesis 77

Cass R. Sunstein
Deliberation, Democracy, Disagreement 93

J. E. Tiles
Democracy as Culture 119
Ted Honderich
Hierarchic Democracy and the Necessity of Mass Civil Disobedience 133

Svetozar Stojanović
Post-Communism, Democracy, Nationality, and Capitalist Economy 149

3. Asian Perspectives

Ambrose Y. C. King
Confucianism, Modernity, and Asian Democracy 163

Chung-Ying Cheng
Can We Do Justice to All Theories of Justice? Toward Integrating Classical and Modern Paradigms of Justice 181

Yu Ying-shih
The Idea of Democracy and the Twilight of the Elite Culture in Modern China 199

Daya Krishna
Democracy and Justice: Presuppositions and Implications 217

Ramjee Singh
Gandhi's Conception of Democracy 231

Javid Iqbal
Democracy and Justice: Islam's Political Message Restated 241

Majid Fakhry
Western and Islamic Views of Democracy and Justice: A Comparative and Interpretative Study 257

4. Comparative Perspectives

David L. Hall and Roger T. Ames
Dewey, China, and the Democracy of the Dead 275

Joseph Grange
The Disappearance of the Public Good: Confucius/Dewey/Rorty 293

David Loy
Freedom: A Buddhist Critique 309 Y.

Michael Barnhart
Buddhist Ethics and Social Justice 327
5. Postmodern Perspectives

Rosi Braidotti
  Nomadic Subjects: Feminist Postmodernism as Antirelativism 345

Ernesto Laclau
  Subject of Politics, Politics of the Subject 363

Chantal Mouffe
  Democratic Identity and Pluralist Politics 381

Hans-Georg Möller
  The Philosophy of Signs and Democratic Discourse: Coincidences between Chinese Pre- and Western Post-Modernity 395

James Buchanan
  Beyond East and West: Postmodern Democracy in a Mode of Information 405

6. Principles of Cultural Dialogue

Marietta Stepaniants
  The Ideal of Justice in the Context of Cultural Dialogue 423

Yersu Kim
  World Change and the Cultural Synthesis of the West 431

Fred Dallmayr
  Justice and Global Democracy 443

Contributors 467

Index 473