Air Power Confronts an Unstable World

Edited by

Richard P Hallion

BRASSEY'S

London * Washington
CONTENTS

Biographical Notes viii

Acknowledgments x

Preface: The Changing Nature of Air Warfare
Air Commodore Andrew G B Vallance, RAF xiii

Introduction: Air Power Past, Present and Future
Richard P Hallion, USAF 1

1. Doctrine, Technology and Air Warfare
Lieutenant Colonel Barry D Watts, USAF (ret.) 13

2. Air Targeting Strategies: An Overview
Colonel Phillip S Meilinger, USAF 51

3. Shattering Impact: The Psychology of Air Attack
Group Captain Andrew P N Lambert, RAF 83

4. Precision Air Attack in the Modern Era
Richard P Hallion, USAF 111

5. Joint Air Warfare: Halfway There
Rear Admiral James A Winnefeld, USN (ret.) 139

6. Operations in Search of a Title: Air Power in Operations Other Than War
Air Vice-Marshals Tony Mason, RAF (ret.) 157

7. ‘You’ll Remember the Quality Long After You’ve Forgotten the Cost’: Structuring Air Power for the Small Air Force
Alan Stephens, RAAF 179

8. The New Calculus: The Future of Air Power in Light of its Growing Qualitative Edge
Fred Frostic, DoD 203

Afterward: Challenges and Opportunities
Colonel John A Warden III, USAF (ret.) 227

Index 241