Contents

Foreword by Johan Galtung vii
Preface and Acknowledgments ix
Introduction xii

Part I Research Design 1
1 International Theory and Social Order in Civilizational Thought 3
2 Comparison of Civilizational Thought: The Cases and the Method 12

Part II Principle-Oriented Patterns of Social Order 35
3 Moral Principles as the Basis of Social Order 37
4 Dharma and Caste as the Basis of Social Order 52
5 Asha and Contract as the Basis of Social Order 65
6 Torah and National Identity as the Basis of Social Order 72

Part III Power-Oriented Patterns of Social Order 87
7 The Ideal Community as the Basis of Social Order 91
8 The Wise King as the Basis of Social Order 111
Contents

9 Education as the Basis of Social Order 129
10 Heroism as the Basis of Social Order 143
11 Coercive Power as the Basis of Social Order 153
12 Peaceful External Relations as the Basis of Social Order 165
13 The Politics of Exclusion as the Basis of Social Order 178
14 Power Politics as the Basis of Social Order 200
Conclusions: Comparison of the Ideas of Social Order 205
Appendix: Notes on the Primary and Secondary Sources 215
Bibliography 219
Index 235