The Silent Church

Human Rights and Adventist Social Ethics

Zdravko Plantak

Foreword by Sakae Kubo
Contents

Acknowledgements ix

Foreword by Sakae Kubo xi

Introduction 1

Part I Seventh-day Adventists and Human Rights 9

1. Adventist Attitudes to Human Rights: An Historical Perspective 11

2. Emergence of Concern for Human Rights 38

Part II Seventh-day Adventist Responses to Some Issues in Human Rights 51

3. Wealth Divide: The Seventh-day Adventist Church and the Poor 53

4. Racial Divide: Discrimination and Adventism – Theological and Hermeneutical Considerations 74

5. Gender Divide: The Role of Women in the Seventh-day Adventist Church 92

Part III Social Theology in Seventh-day Adventist Scholarship 123

6. Reasons for Social Concern in Modern Adventism 125

7. Adventism’s ‘New Theology’ 137
Part IV  Theology and Ethics of Human Rights:
The Seventh-day Adventist Perspective  151

8.  Philosophical Basis for Human Rights  153

9.  A Common Theological Basis for Human Rights  163

10.  Adventist Basis for Human Rights  187

Conclusion  208

Notes  214

Further Reading  255

Index  269