The international organization of credit
States and global finance in the world-economy

Randall D. Germain
University of Newcastle upon Tyne
Contents

List of figures and tables ......................................................... page x
Preface .................................................................................. xi
Note on figures and tables ..................................................... xv
Glossary ................................................................................ xvi

1 Routes to international political economy: ............................. 1 accounting for international monetary order

Part 1 The international organization of credit in historical perspective

2 The power of cities and their limits: principal financial centres and international monetary order .......... 33
3 Between change and continuity: reconstructing ........................ 75
   “Bretton Woods”

Part 2 The contemporary international organization of credit ........................................................................ 103

4 The era of decentralized globalization .................................... 103
5 Decentralized globalization and the exercise of public authority ......................................................... 137
6 Finance, power, and the world-economy approach: ........................ 162
towards an historical–institutional international political economy

Appendix: Top merchant/investment banks, by city and era ................................................................. 179
References .............................................................................. 182
Index .................................................................................... 196