THE DECLINE OF REPRESENTATIVE DEMOCRACY

Process, Participation, and Power in State Legislatures

Alan Rosenthal
Rutgers University

CQ Press
A Division of Congressional Quarterly Inc.
Washington, D.C.
Contents

Tables and Figures     viii

Preface       ix

Introduction  1

1. Shifting Bases of Representation   6
   Models of Democracy     6
   The Legislator's Representational Perspective     8
   How Representatives Represent     11
   The Representational Process     22
   The Legislature as Representative Assembly     27
   Representative Democracy     44

2. The Development of State Legislatures     49
   Building Legislative Capacity     50
   Legislative Professionalization     54
   The Waning of the Institution     67

3. The Transformation of Legislative Cultures     85
   Capital Communities     85
   The Erosion of Community     90
   The Cultural Impact of Ethics     92
Assault by the Media 100
The Erosion of Norms 111
The Strains of Legislative Life 114

4. The Process of Lawmaking 122
From Bill to Law 122
Committee Decision 133
Action on the Floor 145
Reconciling Differences 150
Legislative Decision Making 152
A More Democratic Process 162

5. Competition for Legislative Control 168
Individual Competition 168
Partisan Competition 171
The Rise of Legislative Parties 173
Legislative Party Campaign Leadership 176
Financing Campaigns 178
Partisanship Within the Legislature 183
The Effects of Competitive Politics 194

6. The Dispersion of Interest Group Influence 200
The Group Struggle 200
The Bases of Group Power 204
The Role of Lobbying 215
The Weakening of Relationships 217
The Assault on Campaign Contributions 221
The Outside Game of Lobbying 229
Restriction and Expansion 237

7. The Job of Leadership 245
The Selection of Leadership 246
The Responsibilities and Powers of Leadership 254
Achieving Legislative Objectives 265
The Power of Leadership 283

8. Balancing Executive Power 293
The Governor's Upper Hand 294
Legislative Assertiveness 301
Balance of Power: The Case of the Budget 306
Democratic Tendencies 320

9. The Democratic Challenge 325
   The Progress of Democracy 325
   The Dangers of Democracy 331
   Adapting to Democracy 337
   Concluding Note 343

Select Bibliography 347

Index 359