THINKING ABOUT RACE

Naomi Zack
University of Albany
State University of New York
CONTENTS

PREFACE AND ACKNOWLEDGMENTS  x

INTRODUCTION  xiii
A. To the Instructor  xiii
B. To the Student  xiii
C. Discussion Questions  xvi
D. Recommended Reading  xvi

CHAPTER 1
WHAT IS RACE?  1
Introduction  1
A. The History of the Concept of Race  2
B. The Problems with Race in Science  3
C. The Cultural Meanings of Race  5
D. Discussion Questions  7
E. Recommended Reading  8

CHAPTER 2
THE SOCIAL REALITY OF RACE  10
Introduction  10
A. Normative Positions on the Social Reality of Race  11
B. Descriptive Positions on the Social Reality of Race  12
C. Problems with Eliminativism  16
D. Discussion Questions  18
E. Recommended Reading  18

CHAPTER 3
MIXED RACE  20
Introduction  20
A. Arguments for Mixed-Race Identity  22
B. Mixed-Race Identity Options  23
C. Problems with Mixed-Race Identity  24
D. Discussion Questions  27
E. Recommended Reading  27
CHAPTER 4
ETHNICITY  29
Introduction  29
A. Race as Ethnicity  30
B. Historical Developments of American Ethnicity  32
C. Contemporary Ethnic Diversity  34
D. Discussion Questions  36
E. Recommended Reading  36

CHAPTER 5
RACISM  38
Introduction  38
A. Classic Racism  40
B. Unintentional and Institutional Racism  43
C. Nonwhite Racism  45
D. Discussion Questions  46
E. Recommended Reading  47

CHAPTER 6
PUBLIC POLICY AND AFFIRMATIVE ACTION  48
Introduction  48
A. The Meaning and Assets of Affirmative Action  49
B. The Debits of Affirmative Action  51
C. Further Discussion  54
D. Discussion Questions  56
E. Recommended Reading  56

CHAPTER 7
WHITENESS  58
Introduction  58
A. The History of Ideas of Whiteness  59
B. White Normativity  61
C. Post-Critical White Identities  63
D. Discussion Questions  65
E. Recommended Reading  65

CHAPTER 8
RACIAL AND ETHNIC IDENTITY  67
Introduction  67
A. Nonwhite Emancipatory Identities  68
B. Authenticity  70
C. Contemporary American Jewish Identity  72