HERS ANCIENT AND MODERN: WOMEN'S WRITING IN SPAIN AND BRAZIL

edited by

CATHERINE DAVIES
University of Manchester

and

JANE WHETNALL
Queen Mary and Westfield College, University of London

MANCHESTER

DEPARTMENT OF SPANISH AND PORTUGUESE
University of Manchester

MCMXCVII
CONTENTS

Preface vii

DAYLE SEIDENSPINNER-NÚÑEZ, 'But I Suffer Not a Woman to Teach': Two Women Writers in Late Medieval Spain 1

ELENA CARRERA, Intertextuality in Teresa de Avila's Camino de Perfección 15

JUDITH DRINKWATER, 'Las letras y las armas': Fictional Pleasure and Power in María de Zayas's 'Tarde llega el desengaño' 31

JOAN L. BROWN & CRISTA JOHNSON, Women Writers in the Hispanic Novel Canon in the United States 45

JANET PÉREZ, Once upon a Time: Post-War Spanish Women Writers and the Fairy-Tale 57

PHYLLIS ZATLIN, Beyond the Fantastic: New Tales from Fernández Cubas 73

BIRUTÉ CIPLIJAUSKAITĖ, María Sanz's Landscapes with Soul: A Woman's Vision 87

HILARY OWEN, The Anxiety of Confluence: James Joyce's 'The Dead' and Clarice Lispector's 'A Partida do Trem' 99

MARIA MANUEL LISBOA, Whatever Happened to Baby Boys?: Motherhood and Death in Lygia Fagundes Telles 111

Bibliography 131

Index 143