Challenge to the Nation-State

Immigration in Western Europe and the United States

Edited by

CHRISTIAN JOPPKE

OXFORD UNIVERSITY PRESS
1998
CONTENTS

Notes on the Contributors xi

Introduction 1

1. Immigration Challenges the Nation-State 5
   Christian Joppke

PART I. THE CHALLENGE TO SOVEREIGNTY

2. The de facto Transnationalizing of Immigration Policy 49
   Saskia Sassen

3. The Decline of Sovereignty? Politics and Immigration Restriction in Liberal States 86
   Gary P. Freeman

4. Asylum and State Sovereignty: A Comparison of the United States, Germany, and Britain 109
   Christian Joppke

5. European Union Migration Regimes, Established and Emergent 153
   Rey Koslowski

PART II. THE CHALLENGE TO CITIZENSHIP

6. The Re-Evaluation of American Citizenship 191
   Peter H. Schuck

7. Reconfiguring Citizenship in Western Europe 231
   Miriam Feldblum

   Virginie Guiraudon

9. Multicultural Race Relations in Britain: Problems of Interpretation and Explanation 319
   Adrian Favell

Index 351