The New Regionalism in Western Europe
Territorial Restructuring and Political Change

Michael Keating
Professor of Political Science
University of Western Ontario
Canada

Edward Elgar
Cheltenham, UK · Northampton, MA, USA
Contents

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Figures</th>
<th>viii</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Preface and Acknowledgements</td>
<td>ix</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

1. Territory and Politics
   - In search of territory                  | 1    |
   - The creation of place                   | 7    |
   - Regions — the elusive space             | 9    |

2. Regions and State-building in Western Europe
   - The formation of the nation-state       | 16   |
   - State and nation-building               | 19   |
   - The state and territorial oppositions   | 22   |
   - The territorial state                   | 35   |

3. Regions in the Welfare State
   - The postwar settlement                  | 39   |
   - Regions and politics                   | 43   |
   - The politics of regional development   | 47   |
   - Regions from the bottom-up             | 52   |
   - The move to regional government        | 55   |
   - Establishing regional government        | 59   |
   - Italy                                   | 61   |
   - France                                  | 62   |
   - The United Kingdom                      | 65   |
   - Spain                                   | 67   |
   - Belgium                                 | 70   |
   - The modernization of regions            | 71   |
4. The New Regionalism 72
   The changing context 72
   The construction of regions 79
   Territorial space 79
   Functional space 80
   Regional culture 83
   Regional identity 85
   Regions, parties and voting 95
   Social space 101
   The politics of regionalism 104
   The invention of regions 109

5. Regional Government 112
   Models of regional government 112
   Constitutional status 116
   Functions 117
   Finance 120
   Bureaucracy 122
   Political capacity 123
   Intergovernmental Relations 124
   Regions and networks of power 127

6. The Political Economy of Regionalism 136
   Economic restructuring 136
   Regional development policies. The new paradigm 140
   The construction of a development model 143
   Development coalitions 144
   Territory 144
   Institutions 145
   Leadership 148
   Social composition 149
   Culture 152
   External linkages 156
   Development strategies 157

7. Regions in an Integrated Europe 161
   Regionalism and Europe 161
   Formulating an interest 165
   Channels of access 166
Contents

The Commission and the regions 172
Inter-regional co-operation 177

8. Conclusion 184
   Do regions matter? 184
   The future 186
   The regional state 187

Appendix 1 Allocation of Functions to Regional Governments 190
Appendix 2 Regions in Six Countries 197
Bibliography 202
Index 231