The Politics of News
The News of Politics

EDITED BY

Doris Graber
University of Illinois at Chicago

Denis McQuail
University of Amsterdam

Pippa Norris
Harvard University

CQ PRESS
A Division of Congressional Quarterly Inc.
Washington, D.C.
Contents

Contributors vii
Preface xi

Introduction: Political Communication in a Democracy 1
Doris Graber, Denis McQuail, and Pippa Norris

SECTION I: JOURNALISTS

1 Political Roles of the Journalist 17
Thomas E. Patterson

2 Transition and Democratization: The Role of Journalists in Eastern Europe and the Former Soviet Union 33
Ellen Mickiewicz

3 Reporting Presidential Campaigns: A Journalist's View 57
Walter Cronkite

SECTION II: POLITICAL ACTORS

4 Government News Management 70
Barbara Pfetsch

5 The News Shapers: Strategic Communication as a Third Force in News Making 94
Jarol B. Manheim

6 The Role of the Press in the Health Care Reform Debate of 1993–1994 110
Kathleen Hall Jamieson and Joseph N. Cappella

SECTION III: THE PUBLIC'S VOICE

7 The Public Journalism Movement and Its Problems 132
Michael Schudson
Public Opinion and Polling 150
Kathleen A. Frankovic

Market Research and the Audience for Political News 171
Doug Underwood

SECTION IV: NEW TECHNOLOGIES

Media Concentration, Economics, and Regulation 193
Robert G. Picard

The Media and Public Policy 218
David L. Paletz

The Global Impact of New Technologies 238
W. Russell Neuman

Conclusion: Challenges for Public Policy 251
Denis McQuail, Doris Graber, and Pippa Norris

Index 259