CITIZEN

COMPETENCE

AND

DEMOCRATIC

INSTITUTIONS

THE PENNSYLVANIA STATE UNIVERSITY PRESS
UNIVERSITY PARK, PENNSYLVANIA
CONTENTS

ALAN KAY, Foreword vii
Preface xi

KAROL EDWARD SOŁTAN, Introduction: Civic Competence, Democracy, and the Good Society. 1

PART ONE
What Is Civic Competence?

1. KAROL EDWARD SOŁTAN, Civic Competence, Attractiveness, and Maturity. 17
2. BENJAMIN R. BARBER, The Discourse of Civility. 39
3. JOHN GAVENTA, Citizen Knowledge, Citizen Competence, and Democracy Building. 49

PART TWO
The State of Civic Competence

5. BENJAMIN I. PAGE and ROBERT Y. SHAPIRO, The Rational Public and Beyond. 93
6. SAMUEL L. POPKIN and MICHAEL A. DIMOCK, Political Knowledge and Citizen Competence. 117
7. ELISABETH R. GERBER and ARTHUR LUPIA, Voter Competence in Direct Legislation Elections. 147
8. NORMAN FROHLICH and JOE A. OPPENHEIMER, Values, Policies, and Citizen Competence: An Experimental Perspective. 161

PART THREE
Strengthening Citizen Competence

9. FRANK M. BRYAN, Direct Democracy and Civic Competence: The Case of Town Meeting. 195
10. David Steiner, Searching for Educational Coherence in a Democratic State. 225

11. Harry C. Boyte, Building the Commonwealth: Citizenship as Public Work. 259

12. James S. Fishkin, Toward Deliberative Democracy: Experimenting with an Ideal. 279

PART FOUR

Conclusion

15. Marion Smiley, Democratic Citizenship: A Question of Competence? 371

Index 405

List of Contributors 423