THE LAST COLONIES

ROBERT ALDRICH and JOHN CONNELL

CAMBRIDGE UNIVERSITY PRESS
Contents

List of Maps and Tables vii
Acknowledgements viii
Abbreviations ix

1 The Legacy of Empire 1
   Defining ‘Colonies’ 2
   The Overseas Territories 9

2 Constitutional Issues 16
   Theories of Political Relations 18
   Legal Questions 21
   Law and Administration 24
   Dependent Territories and Regional Cooperation 55
   Between Integration and Independence 58

3 The Economic Transition 60
   The Fall of Production 62
   Niches in the Worlds of Finance 84
   The Bureaucracy and the Tertiary Economy 90
   Population and Migration 99
   Transfer Economies and Welfare State Colonialism 109

4 The Quest for Independence? 113
   Towards Independence? 115
   The Question of New Caledonia 131
   Perceptions of Fragility: The Smallest Territories 137
   Society, Culture and Nationalism 145
   The United Nations Special Committee on Decolonisation 156
   The Diversity of Decolonisation 162
CONTENTS

5 Military Bases, Geopolitical Concerns
   Geopolitics 169
   The United States: A Network of Bases 173
   France: Nuclear Strategy and Geopolitics 184
   The Effects of Military Presence 188
   After the Cold War 190

6 Disputed Territories, 'Colonial' Conflicts 196
   Macao 197
   Britain versus Argentina: The Falklands 200
   Gibraltar 212
   Ceuta and Melilla 220
   Mayotte 228
   Settling 'Colonial' Conflicts 232

7 The End of Empire? 235
   The Overseas Territories 236
   Nationalism and Internationalism 239
   Pluralism and Diversity 243

Appendix: Profiles of Overseas Territories 252
Notes 286
Index 324