Table of Contents

Acknowledgements

 Preface

Jagdish Bhagwati and Mathias Hirsch

Part I: Introduction

Arthur Dunkel

Jean-Pascal Delamuraz

Part II: The Uruguay Round

Integration of Developing Countries into the Multilateral Trading System

Rubens Ricupero

1. Introduction 10
2. The Divergence at the Outset of the Uruguay Round 12
3. The Contribution of Developing Countries 17
4. The Two Moments of Truth 21
5. A Preliminary Balance Sheet 22
6. Integration of Developing Countries into the Global Economy 27
7. Unfinished Business and New Challenges 31
8. The Post-Singapore Trading System 35

Bringing TRIPS into the Multilateral Trading System

B. K. Zutshi

1. Introduction 37
2. Salient Features of the TRIPS Agreement 38
3. The Background 40
4. Crucial Issues Regarding Patents Raised during the Negotiations 42
5. The Negotiations 44
6. Concluding Remarks 47
Part III: Globalisation and the World Trading System

Whither the Trade System Next? 123
Renato Ruggiero
1. Introduction 123
2. The Challenges of a Global Economy 126
3. Governing Global Interdependence 131
4. Institutional Oversight 134
5. Towards a Universal System 139

Globalisation and the Uruguay Round 143
Peter Sutherland
1. Introduction 143
2. Globalisation 143
3. The Uruguay Round 148
4. The World Trade Organization 149
5. Conclusions 152

International Business Issues in View of Globalisation and Regional Integration 155
Helmut Maucher
1. Introduction 155
2. Challenges for Public Rule-making World-wide 156
3. European Union in a Global Context 163
4. Aspects Concerning other Regional Markets 164
5. Changes in Conditions for Investment in the Developing World 165
6. Outlook and Conclusion 166

Drawing National Democracies Towards Global Governance 171
David de Pury
1. The Lack of Progress towards Global Rules and Governance 171
2. Some Reasons for the Lack of Movement towards Global Governance and what to do about them 173
3. Conclusion 179

The Geo-political Changes during the 1980s and their Influence on the GATT 181
Roy MacLaren