CONTENTS

Illustrations and Tables
page xv

Acknowledgments
xvii

Abbreviations
xix

INTRODUCTION

THE MARKETPLACE OF IDEAS: SELLING THE COLD WAR CONSENSUS
1

- Institutional Logics
  4
- Excavating Culture
  7
- Overview
  12

CHAPTER ONE

MARKET FAILURE: BUSINESS, THE STATE, AND INFORMATION FROM WORLD WAR II TO COLD WAR
17

- The Failure of Truth
  18
- The Brief Triumph of Voluntary Private Information
  21
- The Lion and the Lamb
  23
- Words Are Weapons
  30
- A Market Failure
  34
- Managing the Marketplace of Ideas
  43

CHAPTER TWO

A WEAPON FOR TRUTH: DEMOCRACY AND THE ADVENT OF TELEVISION NEWS
46

- An X-ray and a Mirror
  48
- Reluctant Partners
  54
- “Free Television”
  59
CHAPTER THREE

CLEARER THAN TRUTH: THE STATE DEPARTMENT’S DOMESTIC INFORMATION PROGRAMS, 1947–1953

- Not a Friend in Sight
- The First Programs
- “The Attack of the Primitives”
- A Scare Campaign
- Learning to Work the Networks
- Disaster in Korea
- Clearer than Truth

CHAPTER FOUR

READY, WILLING, ABLE: TELEVISION RESPONDS TO THE KOREAN CRISIS, 1950–1953

- A Brief Panic
- Voluntarism Defined
- To Withstand Attack
- Asking for Censorship
- The Defense Bulletin
- We Must Unite Our Forces

CHAPTER FIVE

CLOSER TO YOUR GOVERNMENT: THE WHITE HOUSE AND NBC PRESENT BATTLE REPORT – WASHINGTON, 1950–1953

- Good Play
- The Fabulous Jones Boys
- Bloodthirsty Barbarians and the Future of Civilization
- Ours Is a Commercial Society
- Outside the Realm of Political Controversy

CHAPTER SIX

- Unification Battles
- Boring Filler
CHAPTER SEVEN
THE MOST VIGOROUS ANTICOMMUNIST CAMPAIGN:
OBJECTIVITY AND CONSENSUS JOURNALISM
The Literature on McCarthy and Objectivity in Print Journalism 156
Television and Objectivity 158
Meet the Press and the Normative Objectification of Anticommunism 162
Standards of Anticommmunism 166
Policing Anticommmunism 169
Historicizing Objectivity: The Narrative of Chastened Liberalism 174

CONCLUSION
SELLING AMERICA: CORPORATE PREROGATIVES AND THE NATIONAL INTEREST
The Blurred Line Between Culture and Conspiracy 178
Whitewash in Greece 180
The “Mighty Wurlitzer” 184
A Certain Price 187

Notes 191
Bibliography 222
Index 233