Conflict in Kosovo: Failure of Prevention?

Stefan Troebst

ECMI Working Paper # 1
CONTENTS

Preface and Acknowledgements vii

Map 1: The Central Balkans ix

Map 2: Kosovo x

Introduction 1

March 1998: Rubicon Crossed? 1
From Kuchuk Kainarji to Dayton: Historical Legacies 4
Turning of the Tide: The Dayton Shock 9

Prishtina and Belgrade: Six Programmes 12

"1974 (Plus)" 12
"Kosova Republika" 13
"Balkania" 13
Partition 13
Regionalisation 14
Ethnic Cleansing 15

Belgrade and Prishtina: Four Scenarios 17

Full-fledged Armed Conflict in Kosovo 17
Montenegrin Uncertainties 18
Tense status quo Continued 19
Dialogue, Negotiations, Compromise 20

Trying to Internationalise the Kosovo Crisis 21

United Nations 22
Organisation for Security and Co-operation in Europe 26
Parliamentary Assembly of the Council of Europe 32
International Conference on the Former Yugoslavia 37
Peace Implementation Council and Office of the High Representative 39
Contact Group on Bosnia-Herzegovina 40
North Atlantic Treaty Organisation 46
Western European Union 47
European Union 47
European Parliament 57
Kinkel-Védrine Initiative 59
United States of America 63
Regional Initiatives 69

Third-Party Involvement in Track 2: Non-Governmental Organisations 72

Unrepresented Nations and Peoples Organization 72
Minnesota Advocates for Human Rights 75
Comunità di Sant’Egidio 76
Humanitarian Law Center 79
International Commission on the Balkans 80
Young Leaders Studies Group on the Future of the Balkans 81
South Balkans Working Group 83
Hellenic Foundation for European and Foreign Policy (ELIAMEP) 83
Transnational Foundation for Peace and Future Research 85
Bertelsmann Science Foundation and Research Group on European Affairs 88
Project on Ethnic Relations 91
European Action Council for Peace in the Balkans 91
International Helsinki Federation for Human Rights 93
Human Rights Watch 96
Campaign for a Non-Violent Solution of the Problem of Kosovo 97
International Crisis Group 99

Conclusion 104

Abbreviations 106