Contents

List of illustrations vi
Acknowledgments vii
Introduction 1

PART I  From Company to Crown, 1757–1857
1  The British East India Company 4
2  Oriental Despotisms and Political Economies 24
3  Orientalism: The East as a Career 49
4  Laws and Order: The Cases of Thuggee and Sati 67

PART II  The Opening of the Suez Canal
5  The "Master Builder" of the Canal: Ferdinand de Lesseps 100
6  Spectacular Suez: The Gala Opening of the Canal, 1869 113
7  The Battlefield of the Future: The Canal and its Consequences 121
8  The Occupation of Egypt: The Arabi Uprising, 1881–1882 138

PART III  The Great Game
9  The Game: The Indian Rebellion of 1857–1858 166
10  The Game: The Afghan Wars 184
11  The Game and its Rules: Governing the Subcontinent 205
12  The Game Board: Getting To and Around India 222

PART IV  The Scramble for Africa
13  From Berlin to Fashoda: 1885–1898 244
14  The Mission and its Missionaries 262
15  The Administrators: Lugard and Rhodes 278
16  Crises of Empire-Making: Khartoum, South Africa, and the Congo 299

PART V  Victoria
17  The Crystal Palace and The Great Exhibition of 1851 332
18  In the Streets: Reforming the Rabble 340
19  "Moral Musculature": Schoolboys and Boy Scouts 352
20  "Jingoes" vs "Little Englishers": The Debate over Empire 361
21  From Ingenue to Empress: The Reign of Queen Victoria 388

Glossary 401
Index 405