Changing Borders: Legal and Economic Aspects of European Enlargement
Contents

Preface
Renate Kicker, Joseph Marko, Michael Steiner ..............................................7

Foreword
Waltraud Klasnic, Governor of Styria .............................................................9

PART ONE
Regional Cooperation Across New Borders: Practice and Legal Aspects
Renat Kicker
The Alps Adriatic Working Community: Practice and Legal Aspects ............13

Klaus Unterholzner
Recent Developments within the Council of Europe ....................................21

Bojko Bucar
The Emergence of International (Legal) Obligations between Subnational Territorial Units - Illusion or Reality? ..............................32

Roberto Toniatti
How Soft Is and Ought to Be the Law of Interregional Transborder Cooperation? .................................................................43

Noralv Veggeland
Regional Governance, Euro-Regions, Flexibility, Power and Rights ..............46

Horst Eisell
Schengen: New Borders in the Alpine and Adriatic Region? .........................54

PART TWO
Beyond the Nation State: Problems of Regionalisation in East and West
Joseph Marko
Beyond the Nation-state: Problems of Regionalisation in Western and East Central Europe .................................................................65
CONTENTS

Thomas Christiansen
Borders and Territorial Governance in the New Europe ............................. 78

Emil Kirchner
The Development and Importance of Interregional Co-operation in Central European States ........................................ 107

Reinhard Rack and Judith Schwarzbauer
Between East and West: The Pre-Accession Strategy in the Heart of Europe .................................................................. 123

Josip Kregar
Democratization of Transitional Societies
Internal Processes and Regional Context ................................................................. 146

PART THREE
Market, Institutions and New Borders

Michael Steiner
Changing Borders, Extending Markets and the Feeling of "Angst" .......................................................... 165

Riccardo Cappellin
Interregional Networking and the Principle of Subsidiarity in European Regional Policy ................................................ 184

Erich Thöni
Is there a European Institutional Integration Trap? ................................................. 204

Jolanta Dziembowska-Kowalska and Jan Kowalski
Institutional Factors in Transition of a Regional Economy: The Case of the Border Province of Gorzow in Western Poland ....... 221

Gyula Horvath
Policy Legislation on Cross-Border Co-operation ............................................. 237

Epilogue

Erhard Busek
New Forms of Cooperation in the Alps-Adria Region? ................................ 257

Appendix

Authors' biographies ............................................................................................ 265