LAW AND REFLEXIVE POLITICS
CONTENTS

Preface and Acknowledgements xi
Introduction xiii

PART I
Republican Constitutionalism

Chapter 1. Citizenship, Passive and Active 3

Chapter 2. Republicanism and its Legacy 10

Chapter 3. Habermas on the ‘Interpenetration’ of Law and Politics 19

Chapter 4. American Civic Republicanism 31
Ackerman and the ‘Discovery’ of Constitutional Politics 31
Sunstein and Michelman: ‘Empathy’ in ‘Law’s Republic’ 36
  Deliberation, Distance and Empathy 37
  Institutional Deliberative Politics 42
  Sunstein’s Institutional suggestion 43
  Michelman’s Institutional suggestion 45
  The Critique of Elitism and the Retreat from the Institutional Dialogue 48

Chapter 5. Dworkin and the Law as Forum of Principle 52
  The Interpretive Thesis 53
  Integrity: The Right Answer 55
  Integrity, Coherence, Narrative 57
  Dworkin Republican 59

Chapter 6. The Containment Thesis 61
PART II

Political Conflict Under Legal Categories: A systems-theoretical critique of Republican Constitutionalism

EXCURSUS: Luhmann's Systems Theory: An Introduction
Operations 74
System and Meaning 78
Observation 81
  Observation: system-centric and system-specific 81
  The Reduction of Complexity 83
  Society and Sub-systems 84
  Guiding Distinctions 88

Chapter 7. Law, Society and Conflict
  The Juridification of Conflict 97

Chapter 8. Law and the Double Contingency of Conflict
  * Thesis [1] against Republicanism 112

Chapter 9. Legal Expectations
  The Function of Law 117
  The Generalisation of Expectations as Legal
    The Temporal dimension 121
    The Social Dimension 122
    The Material Dimension 124

Chapter 10. The Relationship of Conflict and Law 129

Chapter 11. Conflicts Conflated

Chapter 12. Conflict Re-enacted
PART III

Reflexive Politics

Chapter 15. The Exclusionary and the Reflexive

Chapter 16. Theories of Political Reflexivity

Chapter 17. Luhmann on Political Reflexivity

Chapter 18. On Love, Marriage, Law and Politics

Chapter 19. Contingency as Eigen-value of Politics
Chapter 20. Politics 'As Passion'
[Reflexivity as Self-Reference]

Conclusion 287

Bibliography 289

Index 305