Contents

Introduction
Carroll B. Johnson ix

Part 1 Cervantismo and the Crisis of Hispanism

Chapter 1
Theory vs. the Humanist Tradition Stemming from Américo Castro
Anthony J. Close 1

Chapter 2
Romance, Ideology and Iconoclasm in Cervantes
Anthony J. Cascardi 22

Chapter 3
Where Does the Novel Rise? Cultural Hybrids and Cervantine Heresies
Diana de Armas Wilson 43

Chapter 4
Generational Conflicts within Hispanism: Notes from the Comedia Wars
John J. Allen 68

Part 2 Re-visioning Cervantes Studies

Chapter 5
Anatomy of Contemporary Cervantes Studies: A Romance of “Two Cities”
Charles D. Presberg 81

Chapter 6
Cervantes and the Spanish Philological School
Pablo Jauralde Pou 105
(Translated by Anne J. Cruz)

Chapter 7
The Politics of Identity and the Enigma of Cervantine Genealogy
Ellen Lokos 116
Chapter 8
Cervantes and His Feminist Alliances
Anne J. Cruz 134

Chapter 9
Rereading El amante liberal in the Age of Contrapuntal Sexualities
Adrienne L. Martín 151

Chapter 10
The Jealous and the Curious: Freud, Paranoia and Homosexuality in Cervantine Poetics
Nicolás Wey-Gómez 170

Part 3 The Future of Cervantes Studies

Chapter 11
The Crisis of Hispanism as Apocalyptic Myth
George Mariscal 201

Chapter 12
The Ideologies of Cervantine Irony: Liberalism, Postmodernism and Beyond
Alison Parks Weber 218

Chapter 13
"Cervantismo" as Social Praxis in the "Neo-Post" Age: Are We Kidding Ourselves?
James Iffland 235

Afterword
Cervantes and the Culture Wars
David Castillo and Nicholas Spadaccini 248

Contributors 261

Index 265