GLOBAL GENDER ISSUES
SECOND EDITION

V. Spike Peterson
University of Arizona

Anne Sisson Runyan
Wright State University

Westview Press
A Member of the Perseus Books Group
Contents

List of Tables and Illustrations ix
Acknowledgments to the Second Edition xi
Acknowledgments to the First Edition xv
List of Acronyms xvii

1 Introduction: The Gender of World Politics 1
   How Lenses Work, 1
   Why Global? 3
   Why Gender? 5
   Why Issues? 13
   The Immediacy and Import of Global Gender Issues, 14
   Notes About This Text, 15
   Mapping the Book, 17
   Notes, 18

2 Gender as a Lens on World Politics 21
   Denaturalizing Gender, 29
   The Social Construction of Gender and Gender Hierarchy, 33
   The Gendered Who, What, and How of World Politics, 48
   Gendered Divisions of World Politics, 51
   Conclusion, 61
   Notes, 65

3 Gendered Divisions of Power 69
   Women as State Actors, 70
   How and Why Are These Women Rendered Invisible? 78
   Why So Few? 83
   How Do Women Get to the Top? 94
   What Are the Gender Consequences of Women in Power? 95
Locating Power: Nationally and Internationally, 99
Conclusion, 105
Notes, 106

4 Gendered Divisions of Violence, Labor, and Resources 113
Violence: War and Security Issues, 115
Labor: Economic Issues, 130
Resources: Equity and Ecology Issues, 147
Conclusion, 155
Notes, 156

5 The Politics of Resistance: Women as Nonstate, Antistate, and Transstate Actors 163
Women's Movements, 165
Practical and Strategic Gender Interests, 177
Antiwar and Peace Movements, 179
Nationalist and Antinationalist Movements, 187
Economic Movements, 193
Ecology Movements, 201
Conclusion, 207
Notes, 207

6 Ungendering World Politics 213
Ungendering Power and Politics, 213
Ungendering Violence, 224
Ungendering Labor, 228
Ungendering Resources, 234
Conclusion, 236
Notes, 238

Discussion Questions 241
Suggested Readings 245
List Serves and Websites 251
Glossary 255
Index 261