Democracy’s Edges

Edited by
Ian Shapiro and Casiano Hacker-Cordón

CAMBRIDGE UNIVERSITY PRESS
Contents

List of contributors

Preface

1. IAN SHAPIRO and CASIANO HACKER-CORDÓN
   Outer edges and inner edges

Part I. Outer edges

2. ROBERT A. DAHL
   Can international organizations be democratic?
   A skeptic’s view

3. JAMES TOBIN
   A comment on Dahl’s skepticism

4. ELMAR ALTVATER
   The democratic order, economic globalization, and ecological restrictions – on the relation of material and formal democracy

5. RUSSELL HARDIN
   Democracy and collective bads

6. DAVID HELD
   The transformation of political community: rethinking democracy in the context of globalization

7. WILL KYMLICKA
   Citizenship in an era of globalization: commentary on Held

8. ALEXANDER WENDT
   A comment on Held’s cosmopolitanism

9. BROOKE A. ACKERLY and SUSAN MOLLER OKIN
   Feminist social criticism and the international movement for women’s rights as human rights
Part II. Inner edges

10. DOUGLAS RAE
    Democratic liberty and the tyrannies of place

11. ELIZABETH KISS
    Democracy and the politics of recognition

12. IAN SHAPIRO
    Group aspirations and democratic politics

13. JEFFREY C. ISAAC, MATTHEW F. FILNER, and JASON C. BIVINS
    American democracy and the New Christian Right: a critique of apolitical liberalism

14. COURTNEY JUNG
    Between liberalism and a hard place

15. SUSAN L. HURLEY
    Rationality, democracy, and leaky boundaries: vertical vs horizontal modularity

Index